

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Q. IV. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, the twenty-four following :—

(1.) ROBERT OWEN; who was a native of North Wales, and was converted to God through the instrumentality of one of the earliest Welsh ministers. In the year 1811 he received his first appointment as an itinerant preacher, and continued for thirty-nine years to labour with acceptance in various Circuits in North and South Wales. He was a good and upright man, of unblemished character, regular in the discharge of his ministerial duties, and much beloved by all who knew him. He continued to labour, as far as his strength permitted, to the end of his advanced life. In his last illness, which was short and not severe, he was perfectly resigned and happy. He frequently expressed "a desire to depart, and to be with Christ" and his beloved brethren and friends in heaven. He died, August 3rd, 1875, in the ninety-fourth year of his age, and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(2.) WILLIAM DAVIES, D.D.; who was born at Aberystwyth, in 1820, and died at Bangor, the 13th of August, 1875. He was converted to God in early life, and soon gave decided promise of more than ordinary usefulness in the Church of Christ. His intellectual powers were of a high order; his reasoning and imaginative faculties being in fine proportion. He was an extensive reader and a diligent student. His sermons were characterised by clear arrangement and correct doctrine, by vivid illustrations, and by passages of impassioned eloquence and power. Such discourses, delivered in a style pure and pathetic, advanced him to a very high position as a religious teacher, and he seldom failed to arrest and impress his hearers. His literary ability is well known in the Principality, and his writings will be highly valued by his countrymen for years to come. His mastery of his native language was unsurpassed. The faith and discipline of Methodism, when assailed, found in him a most valiant and able defender. Coupled with his high qualities as a preacher and author, was a rare aptitude for business, which he exercised in various offices connected with the North Wales District. Some years before his death his health had partially failed, and at his request he was allowed to become a Supernumerary by the last Conference; but during the sittings of that Assembly he suddenly died. A few weeks before his death his mind was beclouded by depression, arising from physical causes, but he still held fast to the blessed hope of eternal life. Perceiving that his affliction was very heavy, and that the time of his departure was drawing nigh, a brother in the ministry asked him how he felt under such circumstances. In answer to the question he said, with strong emphasis,

"He hath done, and will do, all things well." And shortly afterwards he passed away, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(3.) ROBERT W. BROOMFIELD; who was born near Rochester, in the year 1815. In infancy he was adopted by his maternal aunt, a pious Methodist, who endeavoured to train him in the fear and love of God. In youth he was studious and thoughtful, and early became a subject of converting grace. His consecration to God was hearty and unreserved. At the age of eighteen he was accepted as an accredited local-preacher, and in this and other ways laboured zealously for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ. Under a deep conviction that "a dispensation of the Gospel" had been "committed unto him," he became a candidate for the Wesleyan-Methodist ministry, and had the privilege of three years' training in the Abney House Branch of the Theological Institution. In 1842 he was appointed to the Wellingborough Circuit, and from that time to the spring of 1875 laboured diligently and faithfully, with little intermission, in the work of his Master. His ministrations, which were marked by sustained energy, gave evidence of considerable reading. In the early part of last year, the gradual decline of his health compelled him to retire from the active work of the ministry, with the hope that by rest and change he would be so far restored as to be able to resume his former position; but these hopes were not realised, his disease baffling the most skilful treatment. To those who spoke to him on the state of his mind and his prospects for the future, his reply was, "It is all right." His long affliction was borne with patience and resignation. He entered into rest August 17th, 1875, in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(4.) CHARLES PREST; who was born at Bath, October 16th, 1806, and died at Lee, in Kent, August 25th, 1875. Brought to a saving knowledge of the truth in early life, and encouraged by competent judges to engage early in the work of preaching, he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry in 1828, and was shortly afterwards employed to supply the place of a disabled minister in the Bristol North Circuit. By the Conference of 1829 he was appointed to a Circuit, and from that time laboured in his sacred calling without interruption for a period of forty-six years. His mind was naturally vigorous, and in the earlier period of his life was diligently cultivated by theological study, so that he became a "workman needing not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth." He loved the Methodist doctrine, and studied it with care, as is plainly shown by his publications, particularly that in which he set forth the doctrine of the Witness of the Spirit, and vindicated it from the imputation of novelty, by extracts from the writings of many ancient and modern divines of various persuasions. His preaching was serious and earnest,—sometimes marked by much ability, but always by directness of application and an intensely practical character. Duty was the ruling idea of his life; it dominated both in his preaching and in his conduct. Prompt and unbending himself in carrying out his idea of duty, he would have all his hearers animated by the same spirit; but while positive and strict in requirement, his disposition was genial, and few men possessed a nature more affectionate or more completely formed for friendship.

He was a staunch Protestant, and took a prominent part in many movements designed to counteract the influence of Popery upon the public affairs of this country, particularly while he held the office of Secretary to the Committee of Privileges, to which he was appointed for several successive years. In this office he rendered various and very useful service to the Connexion; most of all, in the trying season, about twenty-five years ago, when its discipline was infringed and its existence in some places endangered. He also did good service as one of the Treasurers of the Schools' Fund, and actively assisted in promoting the building of the New Kingswood School. But his greatest public service was the re-organization and extension of the Home Mission work of Methodism. The last eighteen years of his life were mainly occupied with this work; and the success he was privileged to witness in the strengthening of feeble Circuits, the occupation of new fields, the employment of additional ministers and other labourers, and in systematic efforts for the benefit of our soldiers and sailors, was to him a source of high and just gratification. The best qualities of his mind and heart found exercise in this development and distribution of the resources of the Connexion, and his name will be preserved in our history as one who sought the good of his country and of the Church of God, and effected much for both. These various and long-continued services were highly appreciated by the Methodist Body at large, and his brethren expressed their approbation of them by placing him at their head as President of the Conference, in the year 1862, a position which he efficiently sustained.

In the relations of private life his conduct was exemplary, and by those who knew him intimately he was deeply and tenderly loved. The state of his health during the last few months of his life was fluctuating, but his mind was throughout kept in peace and cheerfulness. He had no vain regrets, no anxious forebodings, but looked forward, humbly and believingly, to entrance into the heavenly state. For some hours before his departure he was speechless, and probably unconscious; but among his last words were expressions of devout thankfulness for the unbounded goodness and mercy of God to him. Spared the pain of dying, he departed in peace, and entered into life eternal.

(5.) JOHN DAWSON, a native of Portsmouth; who was early converted to God. He was received into the ministry in 1833, and died September 6th, 1875. When young he unduly tasked his physical powers in preaching, and paid the penalty in an enforced retirement as a Supernumerary for two years. As a preacher he was acceptable, and had the joy of seeing many converted under his ministry. Very genial in his disposition, courteous, ever ready to do kindly offices, he was a favourite in his Circuits, and especially with "the poor of the flock." He was remarkable for diligence in visiting the members of his congregation. His last illness was long and painful ; but in it he realised much of " the comfort of the Holy Ghost." In " the valley of the shadow of death " he had no evil to fear ; the presence of the Lord supported him, and he passed blessedly to the fulness of life in the sixty-fourth year of his age.

(6.) JOHN ROBERTS (B) ; who was born near Machynlleth, August 11th, 1829, and entered the ministry in 1855. He had few educational advantages in youth, but in the early part of his ministry sought to improve himself by diligence in reading and study. He possessed a vigorous mind, and his sermons were sound, Scriptural, and practical, and were delivered with energy. In 1872 he was obliged, by failing health, to become a Supernumerary. In 1873, believing himself to be stronger, he earnestly requested to be appointed to a Circuit ; his request was granted, but, owing partly to his severe loss in the death of his beloved wife, his strength gave way, and he peacefully entered into rest on the 10th of September, 1875, in the forty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-first of his ministry.

(7.) BENJAMIN WOOD ; who was born near Sheffield, in the year 1784. From childhood he was accustomed to attend the services of the Established Church, and was outwardly moral. At the age of seventeen he first heard the Methodist preachers, was convinced of sin, and after earnestly seeking the mercy of God for eighteen months, found it by faith in Christ. In 1806 he was accepted as a candidate for our ministry. For thirty-nine years he discharged the duties of his sacred office with zeal and fidelity. His piety was genuine and manifest, and he was " clothed with humility " and meekness. His mind had been cultivated by diligent reading, and his ministry was instructive and edifying. In the year 1845 he became a Supernumerary, and for twenty years continued to work for Christ. During the last ten years he was disabled from active service ; but his mind, however, was kept in " perfect peace," and he daily waited for his change. He calmly fell asleep in Jesus on the 17th of September, 1875, in the ninety-first year of his age, and the seventieth of his ministry.

(8.) BENJAMIN FIRTH; who was born at Sheffield, November 21st, 1803, and died at Bramley, near Leeds, September 23rd, 1875. He was converted, when about nineteen years of age, under the ministry of the late Rev. John Hanwell. For some time, however, his experience alternated between hope in Christ and a fear lest he should deceive himself. But clearer light dawned at last. Whilst listening to a sermon preached by the Rev. William Edward Miller, in Norfolk-street Chapel, Sheffield, he realised such a sense of his adoption that his happiness was unspeakable. He entered the ministry in 1828, and for forty-three years faithfully discharged its duties. He was kind in his bearing towards his colleagues, wise and cautious in the administration of Circuit affairs, firmly attached to Methodist discipline, and an earnest, faithful and acceptable preacher. He was deeply interested in the salvation of sinners, and the joy of his life was to preach Christ. As a friend he was frank, generous, and trustworthy. He retired from the full work of the ministry at the Conference of 1871. He chose Exeter for his place of residence, and continued to render loving and efficient service by preaching, and in other departments of Church-work. But in the hope that a more bracing air might prove beneficial, he removed to Lytham, in October, 1874. Whilst on a visit to Bramley he passed away from earth. He was seated in his chair, resting after a short walk, and engaged in quiet conversation with Mrs. Firth, when suddenly, without pain, he entered the eternal rest of God, September 23rd, 1875. "He was not; for God took him."

(9.) MATTHEW CHISHOLM PENNINGTON; who was born at Workington, October 21st, 1842. He was converted to God when about sixteen years of age. In 1860 he became a local-preacher, and laboured in that capacity for three years. He was then employed as a Town missionary in Sunderland, and after remaining there twelve months, was accepted as a candidate for the ministry. He spent two years at the Didsbury Branch of the Theological Institution, and was then appointed to a Circuit. From that time he fulfilled the duties of his office with diligence and success. His pulpit labours were acceptable, his pastoral visits numerous and welcome, and his attention to the young assiduous. He was modest, and deeply pious. Shortly after the Conference of 1875, disease compelled him to suspend his ministerial labours, though he indulged the hope that he might soon be able to resume them. Amidst much suffering he possessed his soul in patience, and when recovery became hopeless, he calmly resigned himself to the will of God, sustained and animated by the religion which he had loved to commend to others. He died at Matlock-Bath, November 8th, 1875, in the thirty-fourth year of his age, and the tenth of his ministry.

(10.) HENRY DEAN; who was born at Liverpool, in 1811. He was led to accept Christ as his Saviour and rejoice in "the glorious liberty of the children of God" when twenty years of age. In 1832 he was accepted as an accredited local-preacher in the Liverpool Circuit, and in 1836 received by the Conference as a probationer for our ministry. His gifts as a preacher were above the average. He was plain, energetic, and demonstrative, often striking and original, and his ministry was attended with soul-converting power. As a pastor he was tender and affectionate, and in spirit gentle and saintly. While labouring at Tavistock he was compelled, by acute disease, to relinquish the full work of the ministry. In 1870 he went to reside at Lynton, hoping to establish Methodism there, and thus to aid in upholding Protestant truth. During his last short affliction he was filled with praise. "The Lord is about to take me away," he said; "tell the brethren when I am gone, it is all right; my end is peace. I find Christ in sickness according to my expectations." As his end drew near his intellect, always strong and bright, became increasingly so. His countenance was irradiated with a heavenly illumination. With a full clear voice he shouted, "Glory! Jesus, I am coming, coming home. Glory!" He triumphantly exchanged mortality for life at Lynton, November 27th, 1875, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(11.) JAMES FARMER REYNOLDS; who was born at Kidderminster, on the 16th of February, 1837. He was converted to God when sixteen years of age. In 1855 he emigrated to America, and in 1859 was accepted as a candidate for the ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. On returning to his native country in 1864, he was received by the British Conference, and anticipated many years of useful toil in the cause of the Saviour whom he so much loved. He was a diligent student of the Word of God, and a good minister of the New Testament. His sermons were characterised by originality and freshness of thought, and were evidently the result of careful preparation; and they were delivered with fervour and unction. His labours were "not in vain in the Lord." Many will be his "crown of rejoicing." He was a diligent pastor, and by his earnestness and simplicity of purpose, succeeded in enlisting the sympathy and help of others. His character was distinguished by transparency, gentleness, and fidelity. Both in public and private he was fearless in reproving sin, though with much tenderness towards the sinner. He was cheerful, without trifling; warm in his attachments, faithful, generous, and confiding as a friend and colleague. In the spring of 1875 an attack of paralysis laid him aside. He obtained permission from the Conference to rest for a year, still clinging to the hope that he should "not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord." When it became evident that his earnest desire was not to be granted, he bowed with perfect resignation to the Divine will; and calmly resting on the Atonement, and realising the preciousness of that Gospel which he had preached to others, he fell asleep in Jesus, on the 29th of November, 1875, in the thirty-ninth year of his age, and the seventeenth of his ministry.

(12.) WILLIAM BUNTING, of the Haslingden Circuit; who was born at Uttoxeter, June 21st, 1835. In early life, through the influence of parental piety, he became the subject of deep religious feeling. He could not remember the time when he was not impressed with the beauty and importance of religion.

He fully yielded himself to the Lord when about seventeen years of age. Within two years from this time he began to preach, and his earliest efforts were full of promise for the future. In 1856 he became a candidate for the ministry, and was sent to the Didsbury Branch of the Theological Institution, where his sterling excellence, his rare gifts, his manly strength of character, united with great gentleness, endeared him to his tutors and brethren. With the exception of three years in the Oxford-place Circuit, Leeds, the whole of his ministerial life was spent in Lancashire. As he was endowed with a vigorous and cultured mind, a truly poetic imagination and affluence of language, the freshness and beauty of his discourses made them exceedingly interesting and profitable. He was a diligent student of the Word of God and of Methodist theology, and delighted to set forth the truths of our holy Christianity. While his sermons were full of warning and exhortation to the sinner, they were richly instructive and comforting to the children of God. In the pastoral work his many excellencies of mind and heart were manifested. Those who knew him best, knew him as a true friend, a wise counsellor and a sympathizing helper. At the last Conference he was appointed to the superintendency of the Haslingden Circuit. He entered upon his duties in the spirit of renewed consecration, and to the utmost of his power spent himself in his Master's work. Frequent allusions in conversation and in preaching showed that he was being prepared for the change which awaited him. On the afternoon of Wednesday, December 15th, 1875, intending to preach that evening from Ps. xlviii. 14, "For this God is our God for ever and ever; He will be our Guide even unto death," he was seized at the railway-station with apoplexy, and on the following morning he passed away to be with Jesus.

(13.) BENJAMIN FRANKLAND, B.A.; who was born at St. Ives, Cornwall, in May, 1819, and died in London, January 17th, 1876. He was the son of the Rev. B. Frankland, sen., whose laborious and successful ministerial course extended through a period of sixty-two years, exactly double that of his more eminent son. He was educated at Woodhouse-Grove, to which place, after a few months, he returned as a tutor, a position which he filled for ten years, with the exception of a brief interval, during which he held a like situation at Wesley College, Sheffield. While Second Master at the Grove he graduated at the University of Dublin. Though always thoughtful and well-conducted, he was not converted to God till the age of eighteen; but his conversion was thorough and manifest. At the Conference of 1845 he was accepted as a probationer for the ministry, and for thirty years, with exemplary diligence, humility, prudence, and propriety, served the Church of his parentage,—nineteen years in Circuit-work and nearly twelve in the Editorship. He faithfully dedicated to the cause of Christ the energies and acquirements of a naturally vigorous and carefully cultivated mind; having built up, on the basis of his sound training at the Grove and his University course at Dublin, a solid and symmetrical scholarship.

During his years of Circuit service he never allowed his literary tastes and studious habits to interfere, in the slightest degree, with his preparation for the pulpit, his pastoral labours, his attention to the details of our economy, or—as his uniformly quiet, earnest, grave, circumspect, but kindly spirit showed—his habitual communion with God. Hence his unaffected and apparently instinctive ministerial decorum, combined with his steady earnestness and unobtrusive learning, won for him, in the families of our people, a respect bordering on reverence. His sermons were characterised by thoughtfulness and earnestness, and by the qualities which marked his style as a writer—simplicity, exactness, and strength. As an Editor he was a vigilant and sensitive guardian of Evangelical truth, and especially of the distinctive doctrines of Methodism, and a firm upholder of the authority of Holy Writ; and laboured to supply the Connexion with a substantial, wholesome, and purely religious literature, with an industry and efficiency which, year after year, won for him the recorded thanks of the Conference.

But it was in the domestic relations, particularly as a son and a brother, that the elevation and beauty of his character were most strikingly displayed, in a self-sacrificing tenderness which secured the admiration of those who were permitted to observe it. Being naturally reticent, reserved, and self-diffident, the more attractive aspects of his personality were seen only by those who had the privilege of intimate acquaintance with him. They knew him to be the enthusiastic student, the sprightly, self-suppressing companion, and the confiding, open-hearted friend.

Above all, he was a devout and earnest man. Suddenly summoned away in the midst of his days, from work to suffering, and from suffering to death, and intensely interested in the engrossing duties of his vocation, he was yet found quite ready. When the Master came and knocked, he opened to Him immediately. His own death was such as it was so often his privilege and joy to record in the "Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine." His sufferings towards the last were terrible even to witness, but "patience had her perfect work." Undemonstrative as he was by temperament and habit, he said in his extreme weakness, "I could shout." He exclaimed exultingly,—

"O Love, thou bottomless abyss, My sins are swallowed up in thee!"

and spoke of his approaching departure with calmness and joy, saying, "'Absent from the body' we are 'present with the Lord.'"

(14.) JAMES JEROM TOPHAM; who was born at Ripley, Derbyshire, on March 17th, 1805, and died in the very room in which he was born, on the seventy-first anniversary of his birth. He was of an honourable ancestry, several generations of his forefathers having been yeomen of the county, in whose homes some of the ministers who were ejected from the Church of England in 1662 found hospitable shelter. He became the subject of saving grace when young, and joined the Methodist Society at Belper, on March 17th, 1822. From the commencement of his religious career he was a zealous worker for God. He began to preach before he was nineteen years of age, and was made a Class-leader before he attained his majority. Having been heartily and unanimously approved as a candidate for the ministry, he was appointed to labour at Bradwell by the Conference of 1827. After travelling in a number of important Circuits, he closed his itinerant ministry at Bury, Lancashire, in 1864, and spent upwards of eleven years as a Supernumerary, partly at Stretford, and partly in his native place. Few men have passed through a ministry of forty-eight years with greater acceptance and honour. His life was eminently holy from the time of his conversion. His character was singularly noble and attractive; he was loved by all who had the privilege of his acquaintance. As a preacher he was interesting and often very powerful. His sermons were carefully prepared; and, while usually calm and self-possessed in their delivery, he was intensely earnest, and his impassioned appeals had often a very marked effect. His ministrations were alike powerful for conviction, edification, instruction, and comfort. His mind was of a high order, and he thought deeply on a large range of subjects: divinity, philosophy, language, science, and history were studied by him with great interest. His attainments in scholarship were respectable, and his acquaintance with theology was so extensive and accurate, that for several years he was chosen examiner in Theology in one of our Institutions. As a Superintendent he was diligent, faithful, and courteous. The Circuits of which he had charge were greatly benefited by his judicious oversight and management. Twice in the course of his ministry he was Chairman of a District, and successfully sustained the responsibilities of that position.

Modest to shyness, and sensitively retiring, he endeavoured to avoid that publicity and prominence for which his abilities eminently fitted him. His voice was not often heard in our councils, but when he did speak he had always something important to say. Of late years he was not able to preach much, but whenever he occupied the pulpit his ministrations were very highly prized. When seized with mortal sickness he was just completing for the press a little work on the "Nature, Rise, and Maturity of Holiness," about one page only remaining unfinished. His death was a fitting close to a life so beautiful and exemplary. A few days before his end, he said, in reference to his anticipated admission to heaven, "I shall take first one long, wondering, adoring, loving gaze at my beloved Saviour, and then look round for those loved ones who have gone before." He was conscious to the last, and when unable to speak, he signified by his looks and movements his sense of the Divine presence, until he calmly slept in Jesus.

(15.) THOMAS PAYNE; who was born at Devonport, November 19th, 1793. He joined the Methodist Society in 1809; and after being usefully employed as a leader and local-preacher, he was received on probation for our ministry in 1816, and appointed to Nova Scotia. After labouring there for seven years, he was appointed to the West Indies. He toiled zealously in St. Vincent, Grenada, and Trinidad until 1829. Returning to England he laboured with great acceptance and success in home Circuits for twenty-six years. In 1855, he became a Supernumerary, but in 1861 he again left his native land for the West Indies; and during nine years' residence in the Bahama District, exercised his ministry to the great profit of the people. On his second return to England, in 1870, he still continued to preach. To the very last he delighted in his work. His preaching was plain, practical, methodical and thoroughly evangelical. He was a great lover of the standard works of Methodist and Puritan theology. His last days were very happy. Some of his latest sayings were, "He hath made an entire end of sin in me." "All my springs are in Thee." Through nearly sixty years of ministerial life he "kept the faith." On March 18th, 1876, in the eighty-third year of his age, he peacefully entered into rest, to be "for ever with the Lord."

(16.) JOHN WEST ROBERTS; who was born in Manchester, May 3rd, 1808. He was led in early life, by his parents, who were godly Methodists, to the Great Bridgewater-street Chapel, and there, while yet a youth, obtained peace with God. He entered the ministry in 1832. Being exceedingly retiring in his disposition, he shrank from its responsibilities; but his call to the work was too clear to admit of doubt, while his natural timidity was overborne by the power of the love of Christ. With great cheerfulness and diligence he attended to his duties, both as a preacher and pastor, in many laborious Circuits. He was a thoughtful student of God's Word, and his sermons, carefully prepared and full of evangelical truth, ministered to the comfort and edification of his hearers. His life was in harmony with his teaching. He enjoyed the communion of saints, and frequently testified of the happiness he derived from the favour of God. The light of heaven gave beauty to his character. He was remarkably genial and kind; greatly beloved by his colleagues, and endeared to all who knew him. Failing health compelled him to become a Supernumerary in 1872. But in his comparative retirement in the Manchester (Radnor-street) Circuit, he proved in many ways that the work of God was still his greatest delight. His last illness was brief, and until near its close a fatal termination was not anticipated. But he was fully prepared. Earnest prayer having been offered for his recovery, he said, "I am not anxious; the Lord's will be done; I am on the Rock." He at length became eager to depart, expressing a desire to be with Christ, into whose presence and joy he entered on April 3rd, 1876, in the sixty-eighth year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(17.) WILLIAM EDWARDS (A); who was born at Ramsbury, Wiltshire, on the 20th of January, 1820. He was early converted to God, and when about fifteen years of age, joined the Methodist Society at Shepton-Mallet. After giving evidence of his call to preach the Gospel, he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry, and entered the Theological Institution in 1841. At the Conference of 1844 he was appointed to Brighton, and subsequently laboured with great acceptance in various important Circuits. After rendering valuable service for several years in connection with the affairs of the Chapel Department, he was appointed in 1865 as one of the General Secretaries of the Wesleyan Chapel Committee. The duties of this office he discharged with great ability and unwearying diligence. Wise in counsel, judicious in management, and an able administrator, he was laborious and self-denying in his efforts to promote the prosperity of the Chapel interests of the Connexion. His genial disposition and amiable manners greatly facilitated his intercourse with Trustees. He brought a robust mind, and quick perceptive powers, to bear upon the duties of his special work, and to the last he retained the full confidence of all directly concerned in the administration of this department. Devout and consistent as a Christian, he was also a sound theologian, a lucid expositor of sacred truth, and a faithful and successful preacher.

Twelve months ago the first serious symptoms of the seizure which eventually cut short his useful life were observed, but his general health did not seem to be affected to any great degree. Though often urged to take rest, he cherished the hope that he should be able to continue in his work, and with brief intervals he persevered in doing it. On Sunday, April 30th, 1876, while conducting Divine worship at Hindestreet Chapel, London, he was struck down by apoplexy. For ten days he lingered, speechless, but evidently conscious at times. All that loving care could do to soothe his last hours was done, partly by members of his own family, and partly by Christian friends who generously received him into their home. On the 10th of May his spirit passed into rest, in the fifty-seventh year of his age, and the thirty-third of his ministry. Though no declaration of his faith was possible during his last illness, there can be no doubt that his devoted life, mellowed spirit, and habitual reliance upon the atonement of Christ, had prepared him for his sudden call, and that the last two lines which he repeated just before his seizure have already been realised,—

“And strive with those around the throne,
To hymn the mystic Three in One.”

(18.) JOHN HONEY FAULL; who was born at Redruth, of Methodist parents, on June 7th, 1797. When about sixteen years old, at the time of the “great revival” in Cornwall, he spent nearly the whole of one night in the chapel seeking Divine mercy, and in the morning found peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. He entered the ministry in 1824, and became a Supernumerary in 1863. In his pulpit ministrations he aimed chiefly at saving souls, and in response to his earnest and powerful appeals, very many in his different Circuits were induced to yield themselves to God. As a Superintendent he was always diligent in the discharge of his duties, being anxious to maintain and extend the work of God. His careful and judicious attention to business-details was most exemplary. As a colleague he was always willing to co-operate with his brethren, and ever ready to help his juniors. He loved Methodism with a deep, true love, and in his retirement he delighted in nothing so much as to hear of her prosperity. During many years of his later life he suffered greatly, but rejoiced nevertheless in the public and private means of grace; and when nearly blind and deaf, he would spend several hours each day in his closet, wrestling with God in prayer. As his end drew near, he often expressed his unshaken confidence in God, and it was evident to those who watched him that he was being made—

“Meet through consecrated pain
To see the face Divine.”

An emphatic response to the precious words of the Saviour, “In My Father’s house are many mansions,” was his last utterance on earth, after which, on May 15th, 1876, he peacefully passed away, to be “for ever with the Lord.”

(19.) JOHN T. MORLEY; who was educated for the medical profession, but felt, after his conversion to God, that he was moved by the Holy Ghost to engage in the work of the ministry. He received his first appointment to a Circuit at the Conference of 1847. Although not physically strong, and very retiring and sensitive, he was constantly attentive to his duties, and proved himself a faithful and agreeable colleague. In 1853 the state of his health compelled him to retire for a year. He subsequently laboured in the Brecon and other Circuits until the Conference of 1864, when he became a Supernumerary. The last five years of his life were spent at Southampton, where he acquired a high degree of respect, especially by unswerving uprightness and meek contentment under trying circumstances. For some months prior to his death he was unable to preach, and suffered distressing mental depression; but there is reason to believe that he trusted firmly in Christ. To one who attended him he spoke fervently on the importance of maintaining close fellowship with the Saviour. He departed May 18th, 1876, aged fifty-four years.

(20.) ALEXANDER HUME; who was born at Caithness, in the North of Scotland, in the year 1793. His parents being devoted members of the Church of Scotland, he was trained in the days of his youth in moral and orderly habits. Through the instrumentality of a young friend he was brought in early manhood under Methodist preaching, and the Gospel, as then declared to him, he felt to be "the power of God." He was led to seek, and joyously found, a conscious salvation. He very soon began to engage in the service of Christ, and henceforth to the close of a long life, that service was his great joy. By the Conference of 1817 he was appointed to the Aberdeen Circuit. His great desire, however, was to be engaged in the Foreign Mission Work; and having, under the guidance of the late Rev. Richard Watson, passed some time in preparation for it, he was appointed to Ceylon, where he spent twelve years in successful missionary toil. Circumstances compelling his return to England, he afterwards rendered faithful service to Christ's cause in a succession of important spheres of labour in this country. He was a man of unbending integrity and uprightness, and of great conscientiousness in the fulfilment of the duties of his position. He possessed a strong mind; was given to hard reading, even to the close of life; and his stored information he employed to the advantage of others. His preaching was clear and instructive, and was rendered very profitable to many. As a Methodist minister his fidelity was manifest. Becoming unequal to some of the more active duties of the Itinerancy, whilst yet in the possession of a considerable amount of physical, as well as mental, vigour, he retained, during the long years of his comparative retirement, the esteem of a large circle of friends, through the excellence of his character, and his readiness to do good. In his last illness his peace abounded, and he joyously anticipated his departure. As death approached, he assured his friends that Jesus was with him in the valley. Waving his hand in a manner that betokened great joy, he exclaimed, "I am coming, I am coming!" and passed away into rest on June 5th, 1876, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the fifty-ninth of his ministry.

(21.) SAMUEL ROMILLY HALL; who was born at Bristol, December 1st, 1812. He was awakened, by the death of a brother, to serious thought, which ended in his conversion to God. After very careful consideration he resolved to offer himself as a candidate for the ministry. During his residence at the Hoxton Institution, he was the subject, in common with many of his fellow-students, of a very powerful work of the Holy Spirit. Under His hallowing influence he commenced his ministerial course, and from the first day of his ministry to the last, his repression of self and desire to tread in the path of duty were clearly manifested. He was preeminently conscientious in the performance of all he undertook. Having given himself to the Methodist ministry, he studied, with the thoroughness that love alone could inspire, the records of its rise and progress. His admiration of its pristine power deepened with increasing knowledge, until its very forms and usages became endeared to him. The absorbing purpose of his life was to experience and to spread the piety of the early Methodist ministers. He sought no honours, he desired no rewards, and he undertook no labours, that were not immediately connected with this great aim of his life. As a preacher, his first endeavour was to discover the exact meaning of Holy Scripture. He regarded no pains as too severe, and no research as too minute, if by any means he could convey to the minds of his hearers the precise meaning of the Word of God. His conviction was, that the Scriptures were intended to be an authoritative testimony of the Divine will for all time; therefore his careful exposition always led up to a practical application, delivered with hallowed unction, and with all the power of controlled emotion. He forgot himself in his message; and, careless of art and man's device, trusted to the Holy Spirit to imprint the truth with indelible distinctness upon the judgment and conscience of his hearers. He "turned many to righteousness." As a pastor, he was systematic, firm, and diligent. Amongst the poor he was a constant and welcome visitor, and many who had witnessed only from a distance his strength and energy, were astonished at the tenderness he displayed in the presence of sickness and death.

In all the affairs of Methodism he took an unsurpassed interest, and formed respecting them an independent judgment. He could present his own views with firmness and clearness, while his keenness in stating objections to any measures under discussion was masterly. The purity of his motives was fully admitted even by those who differed from him in opinion. His friendship was generous and true; his liberality to the needy prompt and large; and his treatment of the unfortunate singularly gentle and considerate. For the discouragement of intemperance, he was a resolute, yet tolerant, abstainer from alcoholic drinks. He was elected President of the Conference in 1868, and spared no effort to sustain the dignity of a position which gave him an enduring memory amongst the ranks of those whom he most highly honoured. He aimed, in the discharge of his office, to be without rebuke, and to carry into every Presidential act the savour of that holiness which becometh the house of the Lord for ever. His last Circuit was Penzance, in which he preached with all the zeal of his youth. In the midst of his more abundant labours he was stricken with paralysis, and for the four remaining years of his life had the sentence of death in himself. As the wounded soldier still holds fast to the sword broken in the conflict, so he grasped in mortal weakness, but unwavering trust, the arms of truth he could no longer wield. On the last day of his life, feeling himself suddenly worse, he asked his medical attendant if death were at hand; and finding it so, answered, "Then I have nothing more to learn." He exhorted all around him to be faithful to God. Of himself he said, "I have said and done very little for Christ, but I have tried to be faithful; I have meant well." Twice, with emphasis, he sent his "love to all the brethren;" and with joyous anticipations of offering nobler praise to Him who had loved him and washed him in His own blood, he fell asleep in Jesus, June 6th, 1876, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(22.) MATTHEW SALT; who was born at Hanley, May 28th, 1817. His parents were pious. At an early age he realised the favour of God, and entered our ministry in the year 1840. His sermons were carefully prepared; his thoughts were original, his language well chosen, his delivery animated, and his appeals powerful. In pastoral visitation he was diligent, and took pains in the religious instruction of the young. In the Circuits which he more recently occupied, he won the esteem of our people by his exemplary conduct as well as by the faithful discharge of his ministerial duties. He was taken ill on Friday, the 9th of June, after having preached at one of the villages of his Circuit, and died in the evening of the following Thursday. Two or three days before his death he said to his young colleague, with great tenderness, "Come, sit by my side, and let us talk about heaven." He testified, in dying, to his exclusive reliance on the Atonement for eternal salvation, and passed away in great peace, on June 15th, 1876, in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(23.) LIONEL DODS REAY; who was born at North Shields, February 11th, 1827. He was brought to religious decision in the year 1845, during a season of revival in his native Circuit. Shortly after his conversion, he was moved by the Holy Ghost to preach to others those truths, the saving power of which he had himself experienced. In 1849 he was recommended as a candidate for the Wesleyan ministry. Having passed through a course of training at Richmond, he was appointed to take charge of the Training Institution for Native Agents at Sierra-Leone, and had the satisfaction of seeing it prosper greatly under his care. His health suffered during the years spent on the coast of Africa to a more serious extent than his patient and uncomplaining spirit would allow him to admit. After his return to England, he was appointed to several important Circuits, in which his ministry was highly appreciated. In spirit, word, and action he exemplified, in a high degree, the graces of the Christian minister. His sermons were, both in substance and arrangement, of a superior character; and whatever the text might be, Christ was always prominent. His style was at once logical and illustrative, and his sentences condensed and forceful. Like a good householder he brought out of the treasury "things new and old." Soon after his appointment to the Stockton Circuit, his physical strength was prostrated by a painful disease, but special grace was afforded, which enabled him to say,—

"O what are all my sufferings here!" etc.

His death was like his life,—calm, peaceful, and resigned. On the night of his departure he said, "Give my love to all the brethren, and tell them that I die in the faith of Jesus Christ." His last audible utterance was, "Glory!" He died at Stockton-on-Tees, June 27th, 1876.

(24.) EDWARD SHELTON; who was born at Bainton, in Northamptonshire, in the year 1814. Through the prayers, influence and example of a pious father, he was led in early life to consecrate himself to God, and at the age of ten received a sense of Divine favour. From that time to the day of his death he "walked in the fear of the Lord," and was a faithful follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. He entered the ministry in the year 1839, and laboured for thirty-seven years with great acceptance in several important Circuits. His sermons were prepared with much care; his expositions of revealed truth were clear; his illustrations apt; his appeals to the conscience powerful. "By manifestation of the truth" he commended himself "to every man's conscience in the sight of God." And the Head of the Church blessed him with many seals to his ministry. As a pastor he was diligent, loving and kind, faithful to the discipline of Methodism, and ever anxious to promote and extend the work of God. Some months since he was informed by his medical man that rest for a time, in his case, was essentially necessary. This was sought by him, with some benefit; but love to his work led him to resume it too soon, and after a Sabbath of heavy toil he was wholly laid aside. He looked upon death with great calmness and hope. Frequently would he refer to the years of health which he had been permitted to enjoy, and during which he had been enabled to work for the Lord, saying with the Apostle, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." He often said, "I am watching and waiting." In this state he continued until his Master's voice called him up to heaven. He died on Sunday, July 23rd, 1876, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, three; viz.,—

(1.) JOHN ARMSTRONG; who was born in the neighbourhood of Newtownbutler, County Fermanagh, in the month of November, 1788. His parents were Methodists, and from his childhood he was made acquainted with the plan of salvation, and was brought to the means of grace. When a youth he was converted, and at once began to seek the good of others, manifesting an ardent and well-directed zeal. In 1816 he was appointed to the Derry and Antrim Mission, in conjunction with the Rev. Arthur Noble. Here also he met the devoted Gideon Ouseley. His period of active service, spent entirely in the province of Ulster, extended over forty-four years, to which were added fifteen years of comparative retirement, during which he ceased not in various ways to labour for the salvation of souls. He possessed a natural vigour of mind, which, controlled and regulated by Divine grace, led him to hold the vital truths of the Gospel with a very firm grasp, and to present them in a well-defined and striking form. He profoundly venerated the Word of God, and had a happy art of enforcing its lessons in a way at once familiar and impressive. His sermons were characterised by quaintness, originality, and dramatic power. As a pastor he was most indefatigable, and his visits, though very brief, were highly appreciated. Altogether he was one of the most popular and useful preachers of his day throughout the North of Ireland. He retained his mental activity to the last, speaking freely, even upon his death-bed, about the work of God. His experience of salvation through Christ was unclouded. To his aged wife he said, "If this is death, it is very easy." And some time after he exclaimed, "My hope is in the Blood. O, precious Blood! O, precious Redeemer!" On the Lord's-day, August 1st, 1875, his spirit quietly passed away, in the eighty-seventh year of his age, and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(2.) EDWARD JOHNSTON; who was born at Lack, in the County Fermanagh, about the year 1818. In youth he was moral in his conduct, but destitute of experimental religion until the twenty-third year of his age, when, being induced to attend a Class-meeting, he was soon convinced of sin, and sought and found redemption in the blood of Christ. Shortly after his conversion, the love of Christ constrained him to call sinners to repentance. In 1845 he was recommended and received on trial as a candidate for the Methodist ministry, in which he laboured with acceptance and success. His sermons, which were prepared with care, were truly evangelical, and delivered with considerable earnestness and power. As a Superintendent, he was judicious and faithful. As the Chairman of a District, he discharged his duties with ability and correctness. He was an humble, unobtrusive, amiable, and devoted man, and although not much known beyond the immediate circle in which he laboured, was highly esteemed by all who knew him. For several years before his death, he suffered from a wasting disease, which gradually undermined his once vigorous constitution. His end was sudden. On Friday, November 26th, 1875, he filled his last appointment, and on the following day his happy spirit passed away to join the blood-washed throng, in the fifty-seventh year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(3.) WILLIAM LOUGH, a native of the County Monaghan, who offered himself for our ministry in the year 1844. Professing to have been "reconciled to God by the death of His Son," and declaring his belief that he was called to preach the Gospel in the Methodist branch of the Church, he was accepted; and a life of earnest, faithful, and successful labour in the exercise of the Christian ministry, in conformity with the discipline of our Church, proved the truth of his professions, and justified the judgment of those who accepted the responsibility of presenting him to the Conference. Modest, pure-minded, unselfish, and true, he rarely, if ever, made an enemy in the discharge of the duties of his office; and every year he won friends. "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith;" and thus was effective in building up the Church of Christ. Some years since he received an appointment which brought him much into contact with the military : liking this description of duty, and being appointed afterwards to the Curragh Camp, he devoted the remainder of his life and strength, for the most part, to the benefit of our soldiers, and in their service and ours he died. The cares arising from the projected erection of a new chapel, and those connected with new arrangements for the more frequent assembling of the soldiers for worship, were too heavy a tax upon health already failing, and after a severe struggle with painful disease, he passed away, expressing his joyful hope of everlasting life through the blood of the Lamb. He died on the 14th of March, 1876, in the sixty-second year of his age, and the thirty-second of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, nine ; viz.,—

(1.) ROBERT HAWKINS ; who was born at Stamford Bridge, on the 17th of October, 1802, and entered the Wesleyan ministry in 1823. After labouring acceptably for about three years on the Gambia, and one in England, he was appointed to the Antigua District, in which he continued to labour with much success for nearly half a century. In 1866 he retired from the full work of the ministry, after which he resided in the Island of St. Bartholemew's, regularly discharging the duties of a pastor and teacher, until within a few months of his death. The salutary influence of his Christian character and faithful ministry will long be felt and manifested in the Circuits in which he travelled. Mr. Hawkins died in St. Bartholemew's, on July 14th, 1875, esteemed and lamented by the whole community.

(2.) JAMES BANFIELD ; who was born at Devonport, in 1812, entered the ministry in 1839, and with the exception of two years in England, laboured in the West Indies for thirty-six years with great fidelity and consistency, much esteemed and beloved. His death took place while riding to an appointment, and though somewhat startling in its circumstances, was not unforeseen, at least by himself ; for he was heard to say a few weeks before, after partial recovery from a serious illness, "My work is done." He died at St. Martin's, West Indies, on July 31st, 1875, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the thirty-seventh of his ministry.

(3.) JAMES CAMERON; who was born at Kirkintilloch, near Glasgow, Scotland, August 1st, 1805. His parents feared the Lord, and he was carefully instructed in the Scriptures. From early life his religious sentiments were strong. At the age of fifteen he was truly converted to God through the agency of some zealous Wesleyan preachers who visited his native place; and he at once connected himself with the small Wesleyan Society formed there. He became very studious, thirsting for all knowledge, especially that which is unto eternal life, and soon began to exercise his gifts in the streets of his native village and elsewhere. In the year 1829 his offer of service was accepted by the Conference, and he was sent to Cape Town, South Africa, where he laboured for five years with great ability and success. For nearly twenty-five years afterwards his ministerial course was pursued in various parts of the Eastern Province of South Africa and in the Orange Free State among Europeans and natives; and everywhere and always his labours were those of a zealous, able, undaunted, and untiring preacher of righteousness. In 1857 he returned to Cape Town, where he ministered to large and influential congregations till 1864, when he was appointed to Natal as the Chairman and General Superintendent of that District, and toiled there, in D'Urban and Pietermaritzberg, with loving zeal and ceaseless devotion until called to heaven on Lord's-day, December 12th, 1875.

As a preacher, his sermons, which were carefully prepared, were massive in their structure, rich in Gospel truth, and delivered with great energy, and generally with much holy unction and power. As a Christian, he was always cheerful and serious. In his own home and in his converse with his brethren, the holy tenour of his conversation, and the uniform sanctity of his deportment, were conspicuous; and his whole life evinced that he was an intelligent and loving follower of the Lord Jesus Christ, who was all his salvation and all his desire.

(4.) HENRY DE SILVA; who was born in Jaffna, Ceylon, December, 1838. Whilst he was a lad, his parents removed to Southern India, and placed him in a boarding establishment belonging to the American Mission, where he had the advantage of a Christian training and of a thoroughly sound preliminary education in Tamil. In 1862 he was soundly converted to God, and began at once to evince deep concern for his fellow countrymen. After further training in our Theological Institution, he was admitted into the ministry in 1864, and speedily gave proof of being called of God to do a special work in Ceylon. By his diligence, thoroughness, and integrity of character he won the esteem and confidence of his brethren, both European and Tamil. His early education, under the Rev. John Kilner, ripened into broad and general scholarship, and his sermons gave evidence of much culture and ability. He had acquired and developed many of the qualities needful for the arduous work of an aggressive pioneer among the Hindus. He possessed great power of application, keen insight, much tact in the management of men, and was animated by intense love for souls. At the last Conference he was appointed to Kalmunai, Batticaloa, which afforded ample scope for the exercise of his talents for organization and extension. His death was unexpected, but he was not unprepared. His correspondence shows that his faith was strongly fixed on the Saviour. One of his last sentences was, "Christ is my all." He died of brain fever at Batticaloa, January 24th, 1876, in the twelfth year of his ministry.

(5.) MATTHEW WILSON; in the forty-first year of his ministry. He was born near Bradford, Yorkshire, in the year 1808. He entered the Methodist ministry in 1835, and was appointed as a missionary to the Navigators' and Friendly Islands, where for nineteen years he laboured zealously and successfully. In 1854 he was appointed to the Kooringa Circuit in South Australia, and subsequently laboured with much usefulness in the Clarendon, Gawler, Yankalilla, and Strathalbyn Circuits, until 1869, when he became a Supernumerary. Mr. Wilson manifested a cheerful and amiable disposition; he lived a holy life, and sustained an unblemished reputation. The simplicity of his character, and his eminently devotional spirit, secured for him general admiration, affection, and respect. He attended the early sessions of the South Australian Conference of 1876, and took an interest in its proceedings until the day before his death. He suddenly expired, at the house of one of his sons, on Saturday, January 29th, aged sixty-eight years.

(6.) SAMUEL THOMAS KING, of the Sierra-Leone District, Western Africa, who entered the ministry in 1869, and laboured successfully as a native minister in the several Circuits to which he was appointed. He died at Freetown, on the 4th of March, 1876.

(7.) THOMAS KENNINGTON HYDE RELHAN, a native minister connected with our West Indian Missions, was born at Montserrat, and was accepted as a candidate for the ministry in the Antigua District in 1860. After labouring for some time in St. Vincent's and British Guiana, he was made a Supernumerary at the last Conference, and died at Tobago, April 6th, 1876.

(8.) JOHN RIDGWAY GRIFFIN; who was born February 7th, 1849. At his birth his parents gave him to God, either to be taken to Himself then, or to live and work for Him. When a boy he had a great love for the Lord's house, and at the age of eleven he began to meet in Class. He found peace after hearing the Rev. Samuel Coley preach in Cherry-street Chapel, Birmingham. After three years of earnest, useful work as a local-preacher, he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry, and spent three years at Headingley College. He was a very earnest student, and, by his fine manly Christian character, won the affection of all who knew him. At the Conference of 1872 he was appointed to the Lambeth Circuit, but after labouring there for nearly a year his health gave way. In 1874, having somewhat recovered, he was appointed to take charge of the Missions in Barcelona, where for a year and a-half he laboured as the pastor of the English residents of that city, and also among the Spaniards. At the end of last April he attended a convention of Protestant pastors at Madrid. On reaching that city he was struck with pleurisy. On Sunday, May 7th, he was seized with hemorrhage, and gradually sank until the following Wednesday, when he calmly went home to rest. As a preacher, he will be remembered for his simplicity and earnestness. Many have been led to Christ, both by his preaching and his life. He died, May 10th, 1876, in the twenty-eighth year of his age, and the fourth of his ministry.

(9.) JOHN SMITH (A); who was appointed to Southern Africa in 1838, and who, for upwards of thirty years, laboured with great acceptance in various parts of the Eastern Provinces. Failing health compelled him to retire from the active duties of the ministry, and in 1875 he became a Supernumerary. His last illness, though short, was attended with considerable suffering, but his confidence in God was unwavering, and he fell asleep in Jesus, rejoicing in hope. He died at Burgher's Dorp, on May 16th, 1876.

Q. V. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers, or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VI. What persons, who were in full Connexion with the Conference, have now CEASED TO BE RECOGNISED as Ministers among us?

A. 1. ULRIC H. ALLEN, JAMES DANIEL, and THOMAS H. TROTMAN, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

2. GEORGE M. COLLEDGE, NICHOLAS COOKE, JAMES FISH, JOHN H. HENDERSON, JOHN T. PALLISTER, and JOHN TAYLOR (A), who have also retired.

Q. VII. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year ?

A. As follows ; viz.,—

[N.B.—Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 775, is the head of a Circuit ; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper ; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.]

— Francis J. Sharr,	Mr. James Wood, LL.B.

7. The Conference adopts the following rules in relation to the Schools :—

(1.) In any case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools' Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year.

(2.) In all cases of an additional year being granted, on payment, to boys who have not been at school six years, the sum of £25 shall be paid, which sum shall be inclusive of the £6 6s. from the Children's Fund; but in all cases of a request for a year additional to the six years, the payment shall be £30, inclusive of the £6 6s. These payments shall be due in four instalments, one after each quarter day. This rule shall be construed in harmony with clause thirty-two of the Scheme of Management (see Appendix No. III., p. 269).

(3.) For the convenience of the officers of the Fund, the payment for education to both boys and girls shall commence at nine years instead of eight years, and be continued until fifteen years; the ninth year to be reckoned from the Christmas before payment.

8. Application for the admission of daughters to the Schools now established for them, must be made, as in the case of boys, through the District Meetings; and the allowances for those who are admitted shall not be claimed by the parents as heretofore from the Schools' and Children's Funds. The parents of boys in the Schools are also specially cautioned not to claim for them from the Children's Fund, much confusion having arisen in some cases from inattention to this rule.

9. The Conference directs that a certificate of health, signed by a medical practitioner, shall be required at the commencement of each term, in the case of all boys and girls received into, or returning to, our Connexional Schools.

10. The Conference adopts the following regulations in relation to the Schools for girls :—

(1.) That until as ample provision be made for the Connexional education of the daughters as for the sons of our Ministers, no girl shall be received into the Schools under twelve years of age, and that the time of continuance in the Schools be restricted to four years.

(2.) That in future each applicant be required to pass a preliminary examination, in subjects to be hereafter agreed upon, before admission to the Schools.

11. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS :—(1.) The following are the subjects in which applicants for admission to the School for boys shall be examined :—

READING.—The Candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry selected by the examiner.

WRITING.—Small hand. Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading-book.

ARITHMETIC.—The four simple rules and the four compound rules (Money).

GEOGRAPHY.—Outlines of the Geography of England.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR.—To point out nouns, adjectives, and verbs.

(2.) It is referred to the Officers of the Schools' Fund, with the Secretaries of the Governing Body, and in correspondence with the Ladies in charge of the Schools at Clapton and Southport, to frame a scheme for the Entrance Examinations for Girls.

12. INCOME AND EXPENDITURE.—(1.) The Conference appoints the following Special Committee, to meet early in the year, and to consider the best means of raising the income of the Schools' Fund, and regularly controlling the expenditure :—The PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-President, the officers of the Schools' and Children's Funds, the Rev. John Bedford, Dr. Stamp, Dr. Rigg, John W. Greeves, Robert N. Young and Dr. Moulton ; with Messrs. T. P. Bunting, Henry H. Fowler, Frederick Ingoldby, George Lidgett, B.A., and the Rev. J. D. Tetley, Convener.

(2.) The Conference repeats the Resolution passed in 1875, That in consideration of the present state of the Schools' Fund, and the prospective diminution of the balance of the Children's Fund, and more especially in consideration of the establishment of schools for Ministers' daughters, for which no appeal has been made to the Connexion, it is imperatively necessary that a vigorous effort should be made to increase the Subscriptions and public Collections.

13. On the retirement of the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy from his official relation to the Schools' Fund, which has extended ever a period of twenty-one years, the Conference assures him of its sense of the great value of the services which he has so long rendered to the Connexion, and of the fidelity and urbanity with which they have been discharged.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the affairs of the Book-Room?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee; and acknowledges, in the most distinct and emphatic manner, the work of the Book Steward, whose duties have been performed throughout a season of unusual occupation and exigency, not only with fidelity to the requirements of his office, but with a completeness, promptitude, and kindness which have much enhanced their value. The Conference, therefore, presents its cordial thanks to Dr. Jobson for his laborious and most important services during the past year.

2. The London Book - Committee shall consist of the PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Editor, the Secretary of the Book-Committee, the Missionary Secretaries, the Principals of the two Branches of the Normal Training Institution, the Governor and the Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the Rev. HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee of Management, and of the Army and Navy Committee, and the Resolutions of the Committee of the Fund, held in Nottingham, on Monday, July 24th, 1876, and directs that those Resolutions, and the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve forces, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendixes, Nos. VI. and XI.)

2. In the judgment of the Conference the existence of Wesleyan-Methodism as a distinct Church-organization, and the promotion of Home Missions for the evangelisation of Great Britain as an integral part of the work of Methodism, were never more necessary than at present; and, accordingly, the Conference exhorts the Methodist people to provide enlarged means for carrying on this work, and to supplicate the Head of the Church that He will be pleased to raise up for this service an adequate supply of "faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

3. In view of the large number of Married Ministers without houses,—a number which of late years has been continually increasing,—the Conference is obliged to remind those Circuits which have had the services of a single Minister for four years and upwards, of the Connexional obligation which rests upon them to provide for a family; and, while directing the District Committees of those Districts which include such Circuits to make this a prominent subject of conversation at the Financial District Meetings in September, also requires all the District Committees in May, when considering applications for additional Circuit or Home-Missionary Ministers, to bear in mind that, in the present exigency, the Conference must enforce this obligation.

4. The Conference adopts the following recommendations of the Committee of Management:—

(1.) That whenever, in the judgment of the Committee, a Home-Mission Station should have permanently the services of a Married Minister, a House shall be provided,—either in the usual way, by the Circuit to which the Station belongs, aided by the Committee's Grant,—or, where the Mission is not connected with any Circuit, by the Committee only.

In the latter case, however, the furniture shall remain the property of the Committee, (who are hereby made responsible for its Insurance,) until, by special agreement, it has been transferred to a duly constituted Circuit.

(2.) That in all future arrangements for the support of Married Ministers for whom houses are not provided, Ministers stationed in Circuits and Home-Missionary Ministers shall have the same grants.

(3.) That the allowance to a married Minister in full connexion with the Conference, for whom no house is provided, and who would otherwise receive only the allowance of a single Minister, shall be, for Ministers who have travelled four years, at the rate of £40 per annum ; and, if a house be nowhere available for Ministers who have travelled five years or upwards, £50 per annum, payable in quarterly instalments.

(4.) That whenever such a Minister is appointed to a Circuit which, by reason of its having had the services of an unmarried Minister for four years or upwards, is under obligation to provide for a family, the amount so paid shall be entered as a Grant to the Circuit.

5. Considering the necessity of vigorous and sustained effort for the extension of our Home-Mission work, the Conference directs that in the Financial District Meetings and in the September Quarterly Meetings special attention shall be given to this subject, and that arrangements shall be made for holding as many Home-Missionary meetings as possible in the various Circuits, and for the appointment of Collectors, and the formation of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations where they do not at present exist.

6. The Conference recommends that in every Circuit a Home-Missionary Committee and a Secretary be appointed to promote in detail systematic efforts to increase the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

7. JUVENILE HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.—The Conference is glad to know that there has been a gratifying increase in the number of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations during the year, and it entertains the hope that these useful Associations—aiding at once our Home and Foreign Missions—will be established in all our Circuits.

The Conference is decidedly of opinion, that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of these Funds respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees; and that sums so remitted to the Home-Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration, if it request a grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home-Missions. (Minutes, 1863.)

On this subject the following modification has been made :—

In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation shall be allowed :—

One-third of the sums received by Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations, to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, “it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years :”

One-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund :

One-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

In all other cases the former Minute of the Conference remains in force.

8. The Conference deems it expedient to repeat more emphatically one of the Regulations made last year :—

That Grants for Removal Expenses, as well as for Afflictions, shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit on which the amount will be charged, and be approved by the District Meeting to which that Circuit belongs.

N.B.—Removal Expenses are charged on the Circuit from which the Removal has taken place.

9. Home-Mission Regulations.—Each Home - Missionary Minister is directed, with the concurrence of the Superintendent Minister, to forward with his Journal, signed as now by the Superintendent, to the General Secretary, for the information of the Committee, a copy of the Circuit-Plan; and a quarterly statement of the number of full and accredited Church-members, and of persons on trial, in connection with the place or places specially assigned to him as his Mission-District.

10. MR. JOHN VANNER and the REV. JOHN BOND are appointed the Treasurers; the REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY, President of the Conference, is appointed the General Secretary; and the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES the Financial Secretary. Mr. Greeves is also appointed the Deputy-Treasurer. The Committee, which shall meet before the next Conference, shall consist of the Committee of Management, and the

All remittances are to be sent to the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street Within, London, E.C.

The Conference adopts the Report of the COMMITTEE OF DISTRIBUTION. (See Appendix, No. VII.)

ARMY AND NAVY COMMITTEE.

The Committee for counsel and direction relative to Wesleyans in the Army and Royal Navy consists of those members of the Home-Missionary Committee of Management who reside in London, with the addition of the REV. RICHARD HARDY and the REV. RICHARD W. ALLEN, and CAPTAIN SMITH.

The REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY is the Secretary of this Committee.

All communications on subjects relating to Methodism in the Army or Royal Navy are to be addressed to the REV. ALEXANDER M'AULAY, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street Within, London, E.C.

RELATION OF MINISTERS APPOINTED TO THE ARMY AND ROYAL NAVY TO THE SUPERINTENDENTS OF CIRCUITS.

The Conference has directed that the following regulations shall be reprinted :—

1. That when a Minister is appointed for the benefit of Wesleyans in the Army or in the Royal Navy, or both, and is supported by the Army and Navy Committee,—

If the men attending Parade Services have such services specifically held for them, all such services shall be conducted by the Minister especially appointed for their benefit.

If the men are marched to our ordinary forenoon services, in any of our Camps, the appointments of the Army and Navy Minister, and his work on Sundays, shall be arranged between the Army Committee, through their Secretary, and the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit in each case.

2. That the whole of the week days shall be employed by the Army and Navy Minister in his specific work, who is not to have other work laid upon him without his consent.

3. That, in all things connected with his military engagements, the Army and Navy Minister shall correspond with, and act under the direction of, the Army Committee; and, in all other ecclesiastical matters, he shall act in concert with the Superintendent and the other Ministers of the Circuit in our usual way, attending the weekly meeting of the Ministers of the Circuit in which he may reside. (See Minutes, 1870, Vol. xviii., p. 152.)

The Conference resolves that the Ministers who are appointed to labour in the Army and Royal Navy are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made, in any case, with the Army Committee and with the Conference. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may, by mutual arrangement, give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, and as they have invariably done in times past. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions. (See Minutes, 1874, p. 213.)

with those Gentlemen who may be chosen by the lay members of the District Committees, at the May District Meetings in Great Britain, to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund Committee, preparatory to the next Conference.

8. The Conference resolves that, in some rare cases, a fourth year's residence in the Institution shall be allowed to specially deserving Students, but that in no instance shall such privilege be granted without the express sanction of the Conference.

9. The Conference, having regard to the special requirements of Missionary Students who may be intended for service in the East, resolves further, that such Students shall be allowed to remain in the Institution an additional year after the conclusion of the usual term, with a view to their instruction in subjects having direct reference to the work for which they are designated.

10. In the case of candidates for the Ministry, who are on the President's List of Reserve, and have been sent into Circuits during the year, the District Meetings to which they may belong are directed to express an opinion as to the desirability or otherwise of their admission to the Institution.

11. The thanks of the Conference are presented to MR. SOLOMON JEVONS, of Erdington, Birmingham, for his generous gift of £120 for the permanent maintenance of Three Annual Prizes of equal value, to be given severally to that Student of each year, first, second, and third, who, in the judgment of the Theological Tutor, shall have composed the best sermon or essay upon any theme which he shall have allotted to them.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. The Conference resolves that the Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury respectively.

2. That the two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows :—

(1.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents resident in London, the Secretaries of the Wesleyan - Methodist Missionary Society (one excepted), the Tutors and Governor of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the General Secretary of the Theological Institution, the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Connexional Editor; the Financial Secretary of the Home Mission and Contingent Fund; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Dr. Rigg, Dr. Moulton, and Jacob Stephenson, B.A.; together with twelve other Ministers of the two London Districts, six of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2.) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. David C. Ingram; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

3. That, in future, Candidates from the two London Districts shall be summoned to the Southern Examination, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts to the Northern Examination: all other Candidates shall be summoned at the discretion of the General Examination Secretaries, with due regard to the cost of travelling.

4. That two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the two London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

5. That the Literary Examination Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of each of the three Branches of the Theological Institution; and that the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by each of the three Theological Tutors of the said three Branches.

6. That the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Richmond Branch shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and that the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

7. That the Examiners of the Papers in Theology written by the Candidates shall be appointed as follows:—each of the London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester Districts shall appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

8. The Rev. Charles H. Kelly and the General Secretary of the Theological Institution are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee for this year.

9. The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Jacob Stephenson, B.A., are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. David C. Ingram, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

10. The Conference repeats its direction that arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by one Minister of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee; such Minister to forward his Report to the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

7. The Education Committee of Review shall meet in Bristol, on the Friday preceding the next Conference, and in addition to the Committee above-named, shall consist of so many of the Chairmen of Districts as are not Members of the Education Committee; the District Education Secretaries; thirty Ministers and thirty Laymen from the Bristol, Exeter, Devonport, Bath, and Swansea Districts; together with those Gentlemen who may be chosen by the Lay Members of the District Committees at the May District Meetings, to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund Committee, preparatory to the Conference.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Q. XXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the CHILDREN'S HOME?

A. 1. The Conference receives with pleasure the Report of the Children's Home, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. X., page 298.)

2. The Conference is gratified to find that the liberality of the Christian public generally, and especially of Sunday-school teachers and scholars, has abounded towards this work; and expresses its thankfulness that many of the children of the Home have yielded to the influence of Divine grace: and further, it esteems this whole work very important, not only in its relation to the children under the care of the Committee, but also as an agency for training converted young men and women for Christian service and enterprise. Accordingly the Conference commends this branch of the operations of the Institution to the attention and sympathy of the Church of Christ.

3. The Conference approves the following list of the Committee of Management for the next year:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President;

Rev. George O. Bate,	Mr. Henry Avis,
— William Hudson,	Mr. T. Barlow, M.D.,
— Hugh P. Hughes,	Mr. Alfred Bentley,
— Charles H. Kelly,	Mr. John Gibbs,
— John Kilner,	Mr. J. G. Johnson,

— William D. Sarjeant,	Mr. J. E. Vanner,
— James D. Tetley,	Mr. W. Vanner,
— Theophilus Woolmer(A);	Mr. J. J. Vickers;—

with the Principal of the Home; Mr. Francis Horner, the Honorary Secretary; Mr. James Barlow, J.P., Treasurer of the Lancashire Branch; and Mr. John R. Barlow, B.A., Honorary Secretary of the Lancashire Branch, who are, ex-officio, members of the Committee.

The following Gentlemen, who are members of other Christian communions, have, with the approval of the Conference, consented to serve on this Committee; viz., the Rev. William Tyler, Mr. R. J. Jenks, Mr. James T. M'Dougall, and Mr. John M'Gregor, M.A.

N.B.—All communications on the business of the CHILDREN'S HOME should be addressed to the REV. T. BOWMAN STEPHENSON, B.A., 6, Church-terrace, Bonner-road, Victoria-Park, London, E.

Post Office Orders should be payable at the General Office, London. Cheques should be crossed "the City Bank."

HIGHER EDUCATION.

Q. XXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Higher Education?

A. The Conference appoints the following Committee to complete the arrangements for the improvement of the Wesleyan-Methodist Trust Property in Oxford, (see Minutes, 1874, p. 196;) viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., Frederic Greeves, Benjamin Gregory, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., George Maunder, Dr. Moulton, George W. Olver, B.A., George T. Perks, M.A., Dr. Punshon, and Dr. Rigg; with Messrs. J. C. Clark, M.P., W. Edmunds, Sir Francis Lycett, Alexander M'Arthur, M.P., William M'Arthur, M.P., J. H. Mason, William Mewburn, and J. R. Symm.

The REV. GEORGE MAUNDER is the Convener of this Committee.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the LORD'S-DAY COMMITTEE?

A. 1. The Conference receives with satisfaction the Report which has now been presented to it, and heartily approves of the action of the Sabbath Committee during the year, by which our Congregations and Societies have been led very generally to petition Parliament against the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on the Lord's Day. It is greatly encouraged by the measure of success which has attended these efforts, and those of other Christian organizations, to restrict this demoralising traffic; and earnestly exhorts all our people not to relax their vigilance, or to remit their efforts, until this grievous offence against the Law of God and the welfare of the nation shall have entirely ceased.

2. The Conference, impressed with the importance of keeping the sanctity of the Lord's Day very prominently before the attention of our people,—more especially at the present time, where there are so many public and established forms of Sabbath desecration, as well as distinct and organized associations in active work yet further to extend this desecration,—regards it as the solemn duty of Ministers to urge special attention to the claims of this holy day, so that those under their pastoral care may be led to set before the world an example of strict and consistent sanctification of the Sabbath, and zeal for its public and national consecration to those high and sacred purposes for which it has been Divinely set apart.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. GEORGE MAUNDER and the REV. JOHN BAKER, M.A., for their faithful services during the past year, and they are re-appointed the Secretaries of the Lord's-Day Committee for the ensuing year.

The following Ministers and Gentlemen shall be the Committee for the next year:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries;

Rev. William Arthur,	Mr. Henry J. Atkinson,
— Robert Balshaw,	Mr. J. Beauchamp,
— Benjamin Browne,	Mr. J. Gibbs,
— James Chalmers,	Mr. W. R. James,
— Thomas Chope,	Mr. George Lidgett, B.A.,

— William Hudson,	Mr. H. Richards,
— John Martin (A),	Mr. Lancelot Smith,
— George T. Perks,	Mr. T. B. Smithies,
— Theophilus Woolmer (A);	Mr. H. Wallace;—

And, for the Country,—

Rev. George Blanchflower,	Mr. James H. Allcard, Sheffield,
— Frederick W. Briggs,	Mr. Skelton Cole, Sheffield,
— James Clapham,	Mr. J. Dingley, Launceston,
— Robert Eardley,	Mr. J. Dyson, Thurgoland,

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXV. What directions does the Conference give concerning the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL?

A. 1. The Conference resolves,—

(1.) That the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2.) That, in addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed from among Ministers stationed in the same town.

(3.) That arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, they shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4.) That at each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and that the District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5.) That the Examination shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same day in the first week of April.

(6.) That the Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7.) That the Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and that each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable. In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries find necessary.

(8.) That the General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the reading of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on trial in the several subjects of examination shall be entered on the District Minutes.

(9.) That the General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on trial. An Abstract of this Report shall be printed in the Minutes, and the Report itself shall be printed and sent to all Chairmen of Districts, to the Ministers who form the Board of Examiners, and to every Preacher on trial.

2. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee; viz., the Theological and Classical Tutors of the three Branches of the Theological Institution, the two General Examination Secretaries, the REV. GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A., and the REV. W. F. MOULTON, D.D. The REV. DR. MOULTON is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

3. The REV. JOHN WOOD, B.A., and the REV. GEORGE O. BATE are re-appointed the two General Examination Secretaries.

4. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1876—7; viz.—

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, and directs that an Abstract of the same be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. XII.) The Conference repeats its recommendation, that a general canvass on behalf of this Fund should be instituted throughout the Connexion; and trusts that the Superintendents of Circuits will afford facilities for such a canvass, so that the amount which is necessary to be promised before the Committee begins the distribution of grants may be obtained with the least possible delay.

2. Sir Francis Lycett and Mr. William Mewburn are re-appointed the Treasurers of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A) is re-appointed the Secretary. All communications on the subject of this Fund should be addressed to him at 11, Wickham Road, New-Cross, London, S.E.

AUSTRALASIAN AFFAIRS.

The following are the Resolutions of the Conference on Australasian affairs :—

1. Resolved that, under and by virtue of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876, this Conference doth hereby delegate to, and confer upon, the Australasian Conference, and upon the four Annual Conferences constituted by it, and severally called the New South Wales and Queensland Conference, the Victoria and Tasmania Conference, the South Australia Conference, and the New Zealand Conference, the powers, privileges, and advantages vested in this Conference under and by virtue of the 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th Clauses of the late John Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th day of February, 1784, so far as such powers, privileges, and advantages are exerciseable or available within the limits of the Australasian Wesleyan-Methodist Connexion, as defined by the Resolution of this Conference passed in the year 1854.

2. That all Acts which shall be done by virtue of the delegation hereby conferred shall not require any confirmation or approval by this Conference, and shall not be entered on the Journals or Minutes thereof.

3. This Conference doth hereby declare that all Ministers being now or hereafter Members of, or admitted into connexion with, the Australasian General Conference, and the New South Wales and Queensland Annual Conference, the Victoria and Tasmania Annual Conference, the South Australia Annual Conference, and the New Zealand Annual Conference, or any of them, and all persons now or hereafter upon trial for such admission, shall be eligible for appointment to the use and enjoyment of any chapels, dwelling-houses, school-houses, and premises, situate within the limits of such Conferences, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such persons had been admitted into connexion with this Conference.

4. That the operation of the foregoing Resolutions shall be confined to the geographical limits within which the authority of the said Australasian Conference extends, under and by virtue of the Resolution of the Conference passed in the year 1854 constituting such Australasian Conference.

INTERCHANGE OF MINISTERS BETWEEN THE CHANNEL ISLANDS DISTRICT AND THE FRENCH CONFERENCE.

The Conference agrees to the proposal that there shall be an interchange between the French Ministers in the Channel Islands District and the Methodist Ministers in France, and gives power to the President to sanction any arrangement made through the Chairman of the Channel Islands District and the President of the French Conference, so as to make the Stations of the French Conference final. The Conference further resolves, that not more than two exchanges be made in one year, the costs of travelling to be met either by or on behalf of the Channel Islands District; and also, that whenever a married Minister is taken by the French Conference, in exchange for a single Minister, the difference of salary, children's allowances, etc., must be paid to the French Conference.

LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE CONFERENCE.

Having carefully considered the Reports of the Ministerial Committee and the Mixed Committee appointed last year to consider the whole subject of some direct and adequate representation of the Laity in the transaction of the business of the Conference; and having also considered the Minutes of the Ministers assembled in their annual District Meetings respecting the Report of the Ministerial Committee, and the Legal Opinions which have been taken upon the meaning and application of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll,—the Conference now resolves as follows:—

1. That, so soon as shall be found practicable, the Conference will admit Laymen to take part in its proceedings when the matters shall be considered and decided which are classed in the Report of the Mixed Committee under the following heads, namely:—

- “(i.) Committees of Privileges and Exigency.
- (ii.) Missions (Foreign).
- (iii.) Schools: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove, Clapton, Southport.
- (iv.) Chapel Affairs: (a) General Fund; (b) South Wales District Chapel Fund; (c) North Wales District Chapel Fund; (d) The Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland; and (e) The Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund.
- (v.) The Children's Fund.
- (vi.) The Home-Mission and Contingent Fund: (a) General Committee; (b) Army and Navy Committee; (c) Thames Mission; (d) Metropolitan Methodist Lay Mission; (e) Manchester and Salford, and similar Mission.

(vii.) The Worn-out Ministers and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

(viii.) The Wesleyan Theological Institution.

(x.) Higher Education.

(xi.) Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.

(xii.) Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

(xiii.) Temperance.

And also all questions relating to—(xiv.) District Sustentation Funds.

(xv.) Proposed Alterations and Divisions of Circuits, against which there is any appeal.

N.B.—The Conference, when consisting of Ministers only, shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to Alterations and Divisions of Districts and Circuits on which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no appeal,—and also all propositions as to the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Home Mission Committee.

(xvi.) And all financial and general subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the financial or general affairs of the Connexion.

But all matters connected with, or arising out of, the consideration or decision of the subjects specified in this Resolution, which in Resolution 3* are stated to be within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, shall be considered and decided accordingly."

2. That the Conference records its judgment that the extension of the influence and co-operation of the laity in accordance with the preceding Resolution is not in any way inconsistent with the integrity and efficiency of the Pastoral Office, the inviolability of the Connexional principle, the authority of the District Committees, or any of the essential principles of Wesleyan Methodism. The Conference also records its satisfaction that the Mixed Committee unanimously and cordially declared their adherence to, and their fixed purpose to uphold, these essential principles, and the Conference relies with full confidence upon this declaration.

3. That, recognising the peculiar functions and responsibilities of the Ministers of Methodism as constituting its united Pastorate, and the necessity for their annually assembling as heretofore for mutual counsel and oversight, and for those other pastoral objects and purposes which have always been held to be necessary to the unity and discipline of the Connexion,—the Conference approves and adopts the following recommendations of the Mixed Committee; namely,—

“That the following subjects shall remain within the exclusive province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only:—

(i.) The formal constitution of the Conference: Filling up of vacancies in the Legal Hundred: Election of the President and Secretary: and the appointment of other Officers of the Conference.

(ii.) Ministerial Lists: Admission and Continuance of Preachers on Trial: Arrangements for the Examination of Candidates and of Preachers on Trial: Admission into Full Connexion, and Ordination.

(iii.) All questions affecting Ministerial Character and Ability, and of Discipline arising thereout or in any wise relating thereto.

(iv.) All final Appeals in Matters of Discipline relating either to Ministers or Members.

(v.) Ministers becoming Supernumeraries: Supernumeraries returning to the Work.

(vi.) Obituaries.

(vii.) Stations: and all Appointments of Ministers.

(viii.) Pastoral consideration of the number and state of the Societies, and Pastoral Address.

(ix.) Pastoral Reports: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove School; Clapton and Southport Schools; Sheffield and Taunton Colleges; the Leys School, Cambridge.

(x.) Supervision of Connexional Literature.

(xi.) Reception of Addresses, and Preparation and Adoption of Replies.

(xii.) Official Appointments, Deputations, and Delegations.

(xiii.) Conduct of Public Worship, in accordance with the rules and usages of the Connexion.

(xiv.) Time and place of holding the next Conference, and the order of its business.

(xv.) And all Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the Ministerial or Pastoral supervision of the Connexion.

N.B.—It is understood that the management of the Book-Room remains as at present."

4. That the following recommendations of the Mixed Committee shall be referred to the District Meetings in September next, when the lay members are present, for consideration in a special session ; namely,—

"iv. That the Conference, when considering such matters as are declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen acting conjointly,* shall consist of the President, 220 Ministers and 220 Lay Representatives : But that all Ministers of ten years' standing, permitted by the District Meetings to attend the Conference, shall be entitled to attend the Meetings of the Conference during the time last mentioned, and to take part in the discussions, but not to vote.

vii. The Lay Representatives shall be admitted into the Conference for the transaction of the business before stated * at such time or times as the Conference of the year preceding shall have determined.

viii. That no new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, proposed during any Annual Session of the Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Meetings when Ministers only are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law confirmed, by the next Annual Session of the Conference when so composed: And that no new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed both of Ministers and Lay Representatives, proposed during any Annual Session of the Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Meetings when Laymen are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered and such law confirmed by the next Annual Session of the Conference when so composed.

ix. That the consideration and determination of all questions raised by any Resolutions of District Meetings, or by Memorials from Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

x. That the Ministerial Members, from time to time, of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives shall be present, shall be—

- (a.) The President, and all other members of the Legal Hundred for the time being, who shall be able to attend the Conference.
- (b.) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference not a Member of the Hundred.
- (c.) All Chairmen of Districts not Members of the Hundred.
- (d.) If in any year the interests of any Department would not in the judgment of the Conference be represented by Members of the Legal Hundred, provision shall be made for the Ministerial representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when Ministers only are present.
- (e.) And the remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, shall be elected at the Annual District Meetings as follows: The Ministerial Members of the District Meeting shall elect the entire number of Ministers allocated to their District by the preceding Conference to attend the Conference. From the list of Ministers so elected the District Committee shall choose by the combined vote of Ministers and Laymen the number allocated to represent the District in the Conference whilst the Laymen are present.

Provided always, That it shall be competent for the Conference, when composed of Ministers only, to make any other regulations for the selection of the before-named number of 220 Ministers, at its sole discretion.

xi. No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative unless he shall have been a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing at the time of his nomination, and shall be also a holder of office in the Society, either as a Trustee, Leader, Local-preacher, Circuit, Society, or Poor Steward, or member of some District Committee.

xii. That one-fourth of the Lay Representatives shall, from time to time, be elected by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, or, in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference; and that the remaining Lay Representatives shall be elected as follows; that is to say,—

Each Circuit shall be represented in the District Meeting by two members of the Quarterly Meeting, of whom at least one shall be a Circuit Steward.

From the list of persons so nominated the District Meeting, as so constituted, shall elect the allocated number of representatives, by the combined vote of Ministers and Laymen.

N.B.—Until the proposed reconstitution of the District Meeting can be carried out in consistency with our existing laws, any election of District Representatives shall be made by the combined vote of Ministers and Laymen in the District Meeting as at present constituted.

xiii. In the event of the death of any Ministerial or Lay Representative chosen by the preceding Conference in accordance with Clause x. or xii., the District Meeting within whose boundaries such Representative may have resided shall elect another Representative to supply the vacancy so caused."

5. That the Resolutions of the present Conference on Lay Representation shall be printed in a separate form, and a copy shall be sent to each member of the aforesaid District Committees on or about the first of September, 1876.

6. That the following Ministers are appointed a Committee to prepare the Draft of an Order and Form of Business for the conduct of the Conference, which shall be adapted to the changes and arrangements referred to in the foregoing Resolutions, namely,—The President, the Ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference, the Revs. Dr. Osborn, Dr. Stamp, John Bedford, Dr. Punshon, John Bond, John W. Greeves, George W. Olver, B.A., and Dr. Rigg; with Marmaduke C. Osborn, Robert N. Young, and George O. Bate, conveners.

7. That the recommendations of the Mixed Committee recited in Resolution 4, the Minutes which the September District Committees may adopt respecting them, and the Draft of the Order and Form of Business to be prepared by the Committee of Ministers, shall be submitted to a Committee consisting of the Ministers and Laymen who constituted the Mixed Committee on Lay Representation which was appointed by the Conference of 1875; excepting that the Revs. Dr. Punshon, William Hirst, George O. Bate, Charles H. Kelly, and William Ford are appointed in the stead of the late Rev. Charles Prest, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay (now a member of the Committee as President of the Conference), the Revs. Charles Haydon, John H. Lord, and Owen Watkins. The Revs. Marmaduke C. Osborn, Robert N. Young, and George O. Bate, are appointed the Conveners of this Committee.

8. That this Mixed Committee, having received and considered the aforesaid Recommendations, Minutes, and Draft, shall prepare a Report upon them, to be laid before the next May District Committees when the Lay Members are present. A copy of this Report shall be sent to each member of the several District Committees not later than April 20th, 1877.

9. That the Minutes adopted by the May District Committees upon the Report of the Mixed Committee shall be sent to that Committee for its consideration at a second meeting, in order that it may prepare a Report to be submitted to the next Conference, with a view to its adoption of a completed Scheme, which may be brought into operation at the Conference of 1878.

RETIREMENT OF THE REV. WILLIAM B BOYCE.

The Conference, in acceding to the request of the REV. WILLIAM B. BOYCE that he should be allowed to become a Supernumerary, desires to place on record its deep and grateful sense of the valuable services which, during a lengthened and honourable career, he has rendered to the Methodist Connexion both at home and abroad. As a Missionary, first in South Africa and afterwards in Australia, he laboured with a zeal and success which secured for him the confidence and approval of his brethren in the ministry and the people of his charge. For sixteen years he has filled the office of one of the General Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society; and the diligence, fidelity, and kindness with which he has discharged the duties of that office have gained for him the admiration of his brethren, as they have, from year to year, secured the thanks of the Committee. In view of Mr. Boyce's early departure to Sydney, New South Wales, the Conference commends him to the Divine protection and blessing, and unites in earnest prayer that he may be spared for many years to afford to the Churches of Australasia the advantage of his presence and help in their pulpits and in their councils.

RETIREMENT OF THE REV. JOHN HALL.

In consenting to the retirement of the REV. JOHN HALL, after forty-seven years of active labour in the ministry, the Conference desires to place on record its high estimate of his unblemished personal character, of the diligence and fidelity with which he has discharged his ministerial and pastoral duties, and of the value of the services which he has rendered to the Connexion as the Chairman of several important Districts. The Conference trusts that the evening of his life may be marked by the richest communications of grace and peace; and that his ministrations in his more limited sphere will be crowned with the Divine blessing.

RETIREMENT OF THE REV. HENRY H. CHETTLE.

On the retirement of the REV. HENRY H. CHETTLE, the Conference deems it fitting to record its sense of his faithfulness as a Circuit Minister, and in various important official positions; and especially recognises his long and honourable connection with Woodhouse-Grove School, and his assiduous and valuable services as Secretary of the Auxiliary Fund for twenty-six years.

DEPUTATION FROM THE CONFERENCE OF 1874 TO THE FIRST GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA.

The Conference conveys to its late beloved President, the REV. GERVASE SMITH, M.A., its grateful acknowledgments for the very able and efficient manner in which he discharged his duties as the Representative of the Conference to the First General Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada.

RECENT DEPUTATION TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

The Conference has listened with great satisfaction to the narrative of the REV. DR. RIGG of his visit, in connection with the REV. WILLIAM B. POPE, to the late General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States. It gratefully acknowledges the goodness of Almighty God in preserving the beloved and honoured Ministers who were deputed to represent it in that General Conference; and rejoices in the abundant blessing which has been vouchsafed to that branch of the Methodist family which they were commissioned to visit. The Conference records its obligations to the Deputation for the able and judicious manner in which they discharged their responsible duties; and sincerely trusts that the fraternal intercourse thus maintained will contribute to bind the Methodists of Great Britain and of the United States more closely to each other, and to cement the friendship of the two peoples.

DEPUTATION FROM THE METHODIST CHURCH OF CANADA.

The Conference, in taking leave of the REV. DR. RYERSON, the Senior Representative of the Methodist Church of Canada, desires to express to him its high esteem of his personal character, its deep conviction of the value of the services which he has rendered during more than fifty years to the cause of Christ in Canada; and its warm affection towards the important and influential Connexion which he represents. The Conference, at the same time, expresses its affectionate appreciation of the character and services of the REV. DAVID SAVAGE, the colleague of Dr. Ryerson in the Deputation.

DEPUTATION FROM THE AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH.

The Conference, in taking leave of the REV. JAMES BULLER, of New Zealand, deputed to attend it as the Representative of the General Conference of the Australasian Wesleyan-Methodist Church, and of the REV. JAMES BICKFORD, who has accompanied him, desires to express the pleasure which the visit of these eminent Ministers has afforded to it, and to record its sense of the valuable services which they have rendered to the cause of Methodism in the spheres in which they have laboured so long and so successfully.

MONUMENT TO THE REV. JOHN AND CHARLES WESLEY IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

1. The Conference presents its respectful and grateful acknowledgments to the Very Rev. ARTHUR PENRHYN STANLEY, D.D., Dean of Westminster, for the admission of the Monument to the Rev. John and Charles Wesley to a place in Westminster Abbey, for the facilities so cheerfully and gracefully afforded by him for its erection, and for the generous appreciation of their labours, and the fraternal regard for the Wesleyan-Methodist Communion, which he expressed on the occasion of his unveiling that Monument.

2. The Conference also presents its most cordial thanks to the REV. DR. JOBSON, for his generous services in providing, in conjunction with some personal friends, this Monument to the Wesleys, and for the efficient and satisfactory manner in which he superintended its erection.

RESOLUTIONS RESPECTING TEMPERANCE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee on Temperance, with the proposed schemes for Bands of Hope and Temperance Organizations now presented by that Committee; but inasmuch as the time at its disposal will not allow of their due consideration, it encourages the Committee to continue its operations during the next year, and directs that the two schemes now submitted to it be presented to the next Conference, with any alterations which may be deemed desirable.

2. The following Ministers and Laymen are appointed the Committee for the next year; viz., the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Revs. William Arthur, M.A., John Bedford, Samuel Coley, John Farrar, Charles Garrett, Joseph Hargreaves, Henry P. Hughes, B.A., Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Dr. Jobson, Thomas Llewellyn, George Maunder, George W. Olver, B.A., George T. Perks, M.A., Dr. Punshon, Marshall Randles, William O. Simpson, Dr. Stamp, T. Bowman Stephenson, B.A.; Messrs. W. S. Allen, M.P., T. H. Bainbridge, J. Barlow, R. B. Brierley, S. Cole, N. B. Downing, William A. Duncan, R. Haworth, W. Holland, F. Horner, J. W. Lewis, T. F. C. May, A. M'Arthur, M.P., W. M'Arthur, M.P., O. Poulton, T. Seaber, T. B. Smithies, J. E. Vanner, S. D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P., J. Wood, LL.B.

3. The Rev. Marshall Randles and Hugh P. Hughes, B.A., are appointed the Secretaries of this Committee.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

The Conference, after carefully considering the recommendations of the Committee appointed last year, adopts the following resolutions:—

1. In future, no candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the standard Sermons of Mr. Wesley and his Notes on the New Testament, and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture-proofs of the leading doctrines of Christianity as there explained. Notwithstanding, such are the necessities of our work in some localities, that certain persons may be employed, as heretofore, in the capacity of Exhorters, such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Local Preachers' Meeting.

2. Before any candidate is fully admitted as a Local

2. The Conference directs that the ensuing Financial Meeting of the Manchester District shall appoint a Committee for the management of the Mission during the year.

3. The Lay Treasurers of this Mission shall be members of the Manchester District Meeting, when financial and general affairs are under consideration.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACTS.

The Conference records its hearty approbation of the services rendered by the Wesleyan Association for the repeal of these immoral Acts; and repeats its solemn testimony against them, and its recommendation to our people to unite and persevere in still more vigorous efforts to procure their repeal.

THE OPIUM TRAFFIC.

The Conference, recognising the immoral character of the traffic in opium, carried on by the Indian Government, and believing that the want of thorough concord which has unhappily marked the negotiations of the Chinese Empire with England, is largely due to the maintenance of the traffic, rejoices that efforts are being made to revive the opium discussion in Parliament and the country, and earnestly prays that they may issue in the suppression of a monopoly unworthy of a Christian Government.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. Thanks to the retiring President.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful and affectionate thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to its late President, the REV. GERVASE SMITH, M.A., for his eminently genial, impartial, vigorous, and faithful discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Session of the last Conference and throughout the year.

2. Thanks to the Secretary.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the REV. DR. WILLIAMS, for his able and acceptable services as the Secretary of the Conference.

3. The Ex-President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the REV. GERVASE SMITH, M.A., for the able, earnest, and evangelical Discourse delivered by him on Sunday morning, July 30th.

4. The President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the affectionate thanks of the Conference be presented to the President, the REV. ALEXANDER M'LAULAY, for the suggestive, powerful, and eminently practical Sermon which he delivered on Sunday evening, July 30th.

5. The Ex-President's Charge.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the REV. GERVASE SMITH, M.A., for his seasonable, instructive, and powerful Charge, delivered to the newly-ordained Ministers at Wesley Chapel, Nottingham; and that he be earnestly requested to publish it.

6. The Rev. Dr. Williams' Fernley Lecture.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful thanks of the Conference be presented to the REV. HENRY W. WILLIAMS, D.D., for his careful and thoughtful exposition and defence of the Priesthood of Christ, in the delivery of the Fernley Lecture.

7. Suggestions from District Meetings.—It is resolved, That the Convener of the Conference Committee on Memorials from Circuits and Suggestions from District Meetings, is authorised to obtain, immediately after the Annual District Meetings, from the Secretaries of the District Committees, copies of any Suggestions which may have been made, and that nothing shall be deemed to be a Suggestion of a District Meeting but what is recorded in answer to the Question on the subject in the District Minutes.

The REV. FRANCIS W. GREEVES is re-appointed the Convener of the Committee referred to.

8. It is resolved that the Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 13th and the 20th of May, 1877, with the exception of the Lincoln, North Wales, South Wales, Isle of Man, and Zetland Districts.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Home-Missionary Ministers.—(1.) At each Financial District Meeting a return shall be made, from each Circuit in which a Home-Missionary Minister is stationed, of the sum contributed by the Circuit to the Home-Mission Fund, and of the cost of such appointment to the Home-Mission Committee, according to the "Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers" adopted by the Conference of 1859.

(2.) The Conference directs that a special inquiry shall be made at the May District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

2. Candidates for Ordination.—The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report to the Meeting.

3. Preachers on Trial.—(1.) The Conference, having been informed that, in several Circuits, the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity of receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (2.) Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

4. Candidates for Admission on Trial.—Those Preachers who are recommended for admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusively of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the London Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

5. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen on this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

6. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, such Meeting, except under the Regulation passed by the Conference in 1840, (Minutes, Vol. IX., p. 94,) shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides, the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them so that the number required by rule may be made up.

7. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further inquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon, or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto, or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case ; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee ; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

8. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers, needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference, without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District ; the Conference directs the brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case, who is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that a local supply cannot be obtained.

9. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the "Liverpool Minutes," besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District Committee, (as our standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting ; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

10. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records ; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference ; and a third shall be delivered to the Assistant-Secretaries, on the Wednesday preceding the Conference, and by them to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

11. Annual Return of Members in Society.—The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported in the Circuit-Schedules presented at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

12. Returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels.—The Conference directs that the returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels shall include the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists stationed in the Circuit, and not merely the average number in attendance at Divine Service.

13. Circuit Schedules.—In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly under the examination of the District Meetings, copies of the Printed Circuit Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, examined, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxv. ; Vol. VII., p. 67.)

The Circuit Schedules containing the Returns of the Members in Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the REV. JOHN W. GREEVES, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

The Education Schedules, having been filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, are to be sent to the District Educational Secretary, not later than April 10th.

14. Schedules and Circulars on Connexional Business.—As it is obviously desirable, that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed

Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

15. Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge.—The Conference directs, that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the first Saturday in October and March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee. The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

16. Lay-Members of Connexional Committees.—(1.) At the Annual Meeting of each District Committee in Great Britain, one Gentleman, being a member of the Society, shall be chosen by the Lay-Members of the District Committee, to be a member of the Committee of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, held preparatory to the Conference; and the Gentleman so chosen shall have the right to attend, and take part in the proceedings of, the Annual Meetings of the Missionary Committee, the Schools' Committee, the Chapel Committee, the Theological Institution Committee, and the Education Committee, held preparatory to the Conference.

(2.) In respect to the several Committees of the Connexional Funds, it is resolved, that a certain number of Lay Gentlemen shall retire annually by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-election, except in special cases.

17. Lay-Members of District Committees to be summoned by the Chairman.—It is resolved, That, in future, the Chairmen of Districts shall be required to send a circular to the Lay-Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting, specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been particularly remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting. A similar circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

In order to the carrying out of this Resolution, the Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting.

18. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of each District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

19. Division of Circuits.—Before District Committees consent to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

20. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the Boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the Boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that in such cases copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits. The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

21. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, October 6th, December 29th, 1876, March 30th, and June 29th, 1877.

22. Rule of 1797 concerning Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797, on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as Members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person, so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

23. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit.

24. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society Meetings.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

25. Contingent Fund.—In future, all payments on account of Ordinary Deficiencies shall be made through the medium of the Financial Secretaries of Districts. The payments on account of Home Missionaries are to be made directly to and by the Treasurers of the Fund.

26. The Army.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to inquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance; distinguishing the number of Members in Society. These returns must include, also, the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists. The returns given are to be recorded in the District Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

27. Arrangements respecting the Stationing Committee.—The Conference resolves that, in future, the Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 3rd day of July in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of (1) the arrangements provisionally made for the Stationing of Ministers in his District, (2) the invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts, and (3) all Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made;—that from these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, one complete list of all arrangements thus provisionally made, and a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and that a copy of these lists shall be sent to each member of the Stationing Committee at least seven days before the meeting of that Committee.

28. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

29. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1877.

N.B. 1. The Secretaries of the several Funds are directed to meet in Bristol, on Wednesday, July 18th, for the purpose of preparing for their respective Committees the accounts of their several departments.

2. The Assistant-Secretaries of the Conference, the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn, Robert N. Young, and Henry L. Church, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District Minutes various Lists, etc., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of the several Funds, on Wednesday, July 18th, perfect copies of the District Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1877.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1876-77.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year ; viz.,—

1. The private Donations in the Classes, on behalf of the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund, shall be entered in the Class-Books at the next September Visitation, and collected in the month of October, and forwarded at once to the District Treasurer. (See Q. xxvii., A. 2, Minutes of 1851.)

2. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the New Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, etc., are to be made in the early part of the month of November, 1876 ; and the amount, without any deduction on account of Educational Allowances to Children, is to be immediately remitted to the Rev. Charles W. Prest, High Street, Lincoln, one of the General Treasurers for the Schools' Fund. All sums due on account of daughters at the Schools must also be sent to Mr. Prest. Each Superintendent must also send to Mr. Prest a particular account of the sums contributed to the Fund, and of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

3. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations, for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1877; and forthwith remitted to the Rev. John Farrar, Headingley, Leeds. Post-Office Orders are to be made payable in Leeds. The Public Collection for the Theological Institution is also to be remitted to the Rev. John Farrar.

4. The Public Collections on behalf of the Auxiliary Fund are to be remitted to the Rev. John Rattenbury, 39, Hamilton-road, Highbury Park, London, N.

5. Public Collections are to be made on the Sabbath in all the Chapels in each Circuit within the Metropolitan Postal Area on behalf of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund. These Collections, with those made at Public Meetings, and with Donations, Subscriptions, etc., are to be forwarded before the end of March, 1877, to the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., 13, Leigh-Road, Highbury-Park, N.

6. The Annual Public Collections for the General Chapel Fund are to be made, and Subscriptions solicited, in the month of February, 1877; and the whole amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Messrs. Tindall and Pope, General Secretaries, Oldham-Street Chapel, Manchester.

7. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made, as usual, at the March Visitation; and the money is to be paid at the District Meetings in May.

8. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Wesleyan Education Fund are to be made in the month of April, 1877; and the money is to be paid, at or before the May District Meeting, to the Financial Secretaries, and by them remitted to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), 11, Wickham - road, New-Cross, London, S.E.

9. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised must be remitted, through the District Treasurers, to the General Treasurers, whose address is, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street-within, London, E. C.

10. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Worn-out Ministers' and Widows' Fund are to be solicited in the month of May, 1877; and a list of Subscriptions is to be sent to the Secretary, the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, 6, Claremont, Bradford, Yorkshire, not later than the 30th of June. (See Q. xxviii., Minutes of 1851.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to Messrs. Napier and Rattenbury, the Treasurers.

11. The Collections in aid of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, are to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1877; but, wherever practicable, before the May District Meeting, and in connection with a Public Meeting, as recommended by the Conference. Subscriptions and Donations are to be paid to the Treasurers as early as possible.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
 OF THE
 CONFERENCE TO
 THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

AMONG the many duties which devolve upon us when assembled in our annual Conference, there is none that we discharge with more prayerful solicitude than that of addressing to you words of fraternal greeting and pastoral counsel. We rejoice in the tender relation which this time-honoured custom serves both to show forth and strengthen; but our joy is chastened by a solemn sense of the varied and important obligations which are involved in that relation. For ourselves, we pray that the "Chief Shepherd," who has entrusted us with the care of your souls, may grant that as we are "allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we" may "speak, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts." During the period of our necessary absence from you, our concern on your account has not only continued, but deepened. "God is our record," dear brethren, "how greatly we long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ," "making request" for you in our prayers, "that ye might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God." "Now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord."

Through the abounding blessing of God, "who worketh all in all," it is again our privilege to report favourably respecting the work of God in our beloved Connexion. Had we not been able to record any addition to our numbers, the preservation of so many in love and loyalty to our adorable Lord, amid the temptations of an evil world, would call for deepest gratitude. To feed the thousands of our Israel with manna in the wilderness and with water from the Rock, is surely a work of Divine bounty. He "keepeth the feet of His saints." He "holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved." We tremble at the thought of the disastrous results which would follow the withdrawal of the Spirit's influence: all graces would die, and all enterprises for the world's good would collapse. But, God be praised! "the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ" has not only been continued, but largely increased. In our Address of last year we recognised, with devout thankfulness, the visitations of His grace with which our own and other evangelical Churches in this land had been favoured; and although the excitement of that wide-spread revival has in some degree subsided, the spirit of evangelistic zeal and earnestness which it served to evoke, appears to be still increasing. Several events of interest have marked the history of the Connexion during the year, but we rejoice unfeignedly that its crowning feature is the copious outpouring of the Spirit of God upon our Societies. Showers of blessing have fallen upon nearly the whole of our inheritance, whilst in some parts of it there have been special manifestations of God's saving power, which call for distinct and grateful acknowledgment. In the Halifax and Bradford, Leeds, Birmingham, and Liverpool Districts, and elsewhere, "Revival Missions" have been conducted with such marked success as to commend the methods employed to the consideration of other Districts. In the spirit of early Methodism and primitive Christianity, combined and well-organized efforts have been put forth to bring the Gospel to bear upon the unsaved multitudes that are living in the midst of Christian light and privilege; and God has been pleased very signally to set the seal of His approval upon the labours of His servants. As in the olden time, the preaching of the Gospel has been "in demonstration of the Spirit and of power;" sinners have been "pricked in their heart," and in contrition of spirit have sought and found rest in Christ; believers have been edified in faith and love, and thanksgiving and the voice of melody have been heard in many of the palaces of our Zion.

Our official returns show that the number of members in our Societies in Great Britain is 372,938, being a net increase on the year of 14,876; and there are on trial for church-membership 33,228. The increase of members on our mission-stations is 4,060, with 10,043 candidates for membership.

These returns have filled us with holy gladness, and we are sure that your hearts will be as ours in joying before the Lord, "as men rejoice when they divide the spoil." To Him whose hand hath so greatly prospered us be the praise and glory! "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place."

This remarkable prosperity entails upon us an embarrassment which we hope will only prove temporary. The number of candidates for our ministry is not sufficient to enable us to respond to all the appeals for additional labourers. We doubt not, however, that as the result of this gracious visitation many earnest young men will be constrained to offer themselves for the work. Meanwhile, we trust that you will "pray the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest."

The reports laid before us by the Committees of our various institutions show that they are working with unabated vigour and gratifying success. The operations of our Foreign Missions are steadily extending, and are sustained with increased liberality. The visit of the Rev. G. T. Perks, M.A., one of the General Secretaries of the Society, to our mission-stations in Southern Africa, has proved a joy and a blessing to our Churches in that country ; and the knowledge he has gained, by personal inspection, will greatly aid us in the consolidation and extension of our work in Africa. The Rev. Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., by the appointment of the Missionary Committee, has, during the past year, visited our stations in South India, extending his visit to China and Japan. He has greatly cheered us by his report of the evangelistic and educational labours of our missionaries, and the prospects of success amid the great populations of the East, where we earnestly desire to extend our Missions.

We note with pleasure that, without any abatement of zeal for our Foreign Missions, the claims of our Home Missionary work are receiving a larger amount of your attention and sympathy. The labours of the District Missionaries, appointed by the last Conference, have, by the blessing of God, already led to the resuscitation of many of our village Societies which were languishing ; and inspired with new joy and courage many of our country Circuits. We are full of hope that this new branch of our Home Missionary operations will bear yet richer fruit.

Whilst in all the departments of our work there is abundant reason for gratitude and hope, we would refer with special joy to the new energy infused into the operations of our Sunday-schools. The Connexional Union, recently established, is steadily gaining the confidence of the managers of our schools throughout the country ; and by diffusing sound ideas as to teaching, and supplying pure and instructive literature for the homes of the children, gives promise of much usefulness. One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine schools have already joined the Union, and the number is steadily increasing. The objects contemplated by the Connexional Union are being aided by the establishment of Provincial Centres in many of our large towns, and by the appointment of District Sunday-School Sub-committees. The statistics show an increase of 10,110 in the number of scholars who are meeting in Class—a fact which proves that the Sabbath-school has partaken largely of the recent revival of the work of God. There is abundant room, however, for further improvement in this direction; for out of the 725,312 scholars in our schools (an increase of 25,102 on the year), only 60,500 meet in Class. What a glorious field for holy zeal and enterprise! No work in the vineyard of God would secure a speedier and larger remuneration than well-directed efforts to bring our children and young people to a knowledge of salvation. The truth laid up in their minds predisposes them to accept the offer of salvation; and, when converted, they are likely to prove more intelligent, vigorous and devoted Christians than those who are brought to God in more advanced life.

By the direction of the Conference, a new Hymn-Book has been prepared for use in the worship of God in our chapels. The first part of the book, with a few alterations, remains as published by John Wesley; the Supplement has been considerably enlarged, and greatly enriched by some of the finest poems of Charles Wesley, “now for the first time presented for congregational use,” and “by a selection from the works of modern hymnologists, as well as from the accumulated treasures of the past.” We may congratulate our Societies upon now possessing a book which contains many of the choicest hymns and spiritual songs known to the Church of God. We have the utmost confidence in recommending it to your use, both in the public worship of the sanctuary and in the exercises of domestic and private devotion.

Our beloved brethren, the Rev. W. B. Pope and the Rev. Dr. Rigg, appointed as a deputation to convey our fraternal greetings to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America, have, by the good hand of God, been preserved in all their journeyings; and our hearts have been greatly cheered by the account given to us of the loving welcome with which they were received by our American brethren, and of the marvellous development and progress of our common Methodism in the Western world.

Associated with our memories of the Conference that is now closing, will be the visits of the Representatives from other Conferences; and notably so that of Dr. Ryerson, who appeared among us in the same character forty-three years ago, and whose venerable form and eloquent words most deeply impressed us.

Several important questions of legislation have been under consideration, both in the preparatory Committees and in the Conference, and God has endued His servants with "the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord." The desire to improve the efficiency of our Local-preachers indicates no lack of appreciation of the faithful and essential service they render to our Church. We cannot value too highly, or commend too strongly, the self-denial, the diligence, the patience and perseverance of this most worthy class of Christian workers; but the spread of education renders it necessary that the standard of qualification for this most important work should be raised.

You are aware that the Conference of 1875 appointed two large and influential Committees to meet for the purpose of considering how "some direct and adequate representation of the Laity in the transaction of the business of the Conference, in consistency with the recognised principles of our economy and the provisions of the Deed Poll," may be best secured. Those Committees have met during the year, and their recommendations have been laid before us. After prolonged and prayerful consideration, the Conference has adopted the recommendation of the Mixed Committee, namely, that laymen be admitted into the Conference during the transaction of the financial and temporal business of the Connexion, remitting the details of the scheme to the consideration of the District Meetings, and a Committee of Ministers and laymen to meet after the May District Meeting, and report, for final settlement, to the Conference of 1877. The spirit of caution, reverence, and harmony manifested during the discussion of these important questions, warrants the belief that our people are loyal to the great principles on which our ecclesiastical constitution is founded, and augurs well for the future of our Church. Indeed, never was there a more settled determination, on the part both of Ministers and people, to shun most studiously all party aims and purposes, and only to strive to empower our beloved Methodism to fulfil her glorious mission. May the Lord God of our fathers be with us as He was with them!

Turning from our retrospect of the past to the consideration of the present, with its pressing necessities, and of the future, with its grave possibilities, we are supremely anxious that the coming year should be signalized by a still further increase of devotedness to the Lord Christ, and more vigorous endeavours to extend His kingdom. Never was the need for earnest and aggressive evangelism more urgent than in the present day. The times demand, not relaxed, but intensified zeal. It is to be feared that, for want of thought, many amongst us fail to realise how large is the multitude in this highly-favoured land who habitually neglect Divine worship, desecrate the holy Sabbath, and are "without God in the world." Worldliness and indifference abound; commercial prosperity has multiplied facilities for selfish indulgence and dissipation; intemperance, notwithstanding the energetic efforts which are being made to combat this desolating evil, which so greatly retards the work of the Church, is alarmingly prevalent; scepticism is circulating unwholesome literature amongst the high and the low, and the age is deficient in religious conviction. Popery is reviving its pretensions; imitations of that corrupt system are spreading under a perilous guise. The progress of the Church does not keep pace with the increase of the population. How to reach the godless multitudes, to arouse them to a sense of their awful peril, to lead them to the Saviour, and to recognised association with His people, is the great problem which the Church in this land must face and solve, if she would be counted faithful to her trust and retain the smile of her Divine Lord. There are indications, wherein we greatly rejoice,—that the Church generally is turning towards the world with a more eager and tender concern, is endeavouring to combine with an unfaltering adherence to the fundamental requirements of her commission such a degree of elasticity as will admit of the adaptation of her agencies and organizations to the pressing and peculiar necessities of the present day, and is seeking wisdom from above to devise the best methods of winning souls, and the power that shall equip her more effectually to carry out those methods.

Now that other sections of the Church are waking up to the vital importance of this work, we surely must not lag behind. With our hallowed traditions, with our simple and all-embracing theology, with our Gospel songs, with our manifold services for the cultivation of the inner life, and our multiplied agencies, in which room is provided for the employment of all kinds and degrees of talent, we, by the grace of God, should lead the van in earnest evangelism, seeking in order to save them that are lost. The circumstances of our own Community are at present most favourable to this aggressive work. We are free from strifes ; which, when they unhappily prevail, compel an undue degree of attention to the internal affairs of the Church, besides impairing her spirituality and estranging from her the Spirit of God, without Whom all her operations are in vain. Never did our Societies dwell in greater peace ; never were we more loyally attached to the doctrines which have been held by us from the first ; never were our institutions in more vigorous and hopeful operation ; never were Methodist teaching and influence diffused over a wider area ; never was the public ear more open to us. Now, therefore, is our opportunity for bold aggression upon the waste places of our home heathendom. Let us devote ourselves to this, our high vocation, with unity of feeling, with thoroughness of devotion, with unfaltering conviction that as Christ died for all, all may be saved, with intense desire to glorify God, and with humble, prayerful dependence upon the energy of His Spirit; and the coming year shall be one of "the years of the right hand of the Most High."

In thus exhorting you to care for the souls of others, we would affectionately impress upon you, as upon ourselves, that all diligence must be given to the personal culture of the spiritual life. We would remind you that employment in the Lord's service depends upon fitness. This is a law which pervades every part of His kingdom. He does not produce grapes from thorns, nor figs from thistles. He does not employ worldly men to teach spirituality; nor lovers of ease to conduct great enterprises; nor selfish men to generate the enthusiasm of love. He works by instruments fitted for His work. Those who bear the clean vessels of the Lord must themselves be clean. Unless we be "steadfast, unmovable," we cannot be "always abounding in the work of the Lord." The unvarying conditions of successful evangelism are inward purity, strong, realising faith, and complete devotion of self to God. Christian labour is born of Christian love. The concern we feel for our own souls is the true measure of our concern and effort for the souls of others. Our power to do good cannot rise above the level of our own inward life. Our first care, therefore, must be to maintain and invigorate the life of God within us. Having found rest to our souls through faith in the atoning blood of Christ, "let us go on unto perfection;" let us seek to be more and more imbued with those heavenly tempers and affections which are not only the proximate cause of obedience, but the very soul of Christian energy and the true qualification for the work of the Lord. Baptized with the spirit of our gracious Master, it will be our joy to deny our own will and obey His, to confess His name, to bear His cross, to rebuke sin, to labour for souls, and, like the Apostle of the Gentiles, to be made "all things to all men," that "by all means" we "might save some."

Suffer us, therefore, to urge upon you diligent and faithful heed to all those means which minister to growth in grace. Wait upon God in the exercises of private devotion. Do not allow the activities of business or the multiplicity of public religious gatherings, by which this bustling age is marked, to trench upon the sacred time allotted to quiet communion with God; for be assured that nothing will more effectually and more speedily enfeeble your piety than hurried and unthoughtful prayer. Entering into your closet, and shutting the door, learn to wait before the mercy-seat until the brightness of the Divine presence beams upon your soul, until you be "endued with power from on high;" then shall you come forth from your closets clothed with salvation, and by your prevalence with God be enabled to prevail with men. Let the sacred Scriptures occupy the first place in your studies. Be careful lest any kind of literature, how good soever, should usurp the prominence due to the Bible. "Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom." A wider and deeper acquaintance with the precious and sanctifying truths of God's holy Word will nourish your spiritual life, give robustness to your principles, prove to you, in "days of darkness," a source of rich and unfailing consolation, quicken and direct your zeal, and sustain your faith amid all the activities of the Christian life, and in all those ministries of love in which, as followers of Him "who went about doing good," you ought ever to abound.

On this matter we affectionately appeal to our young people. To none is the diligent and reverent study of the Word of God more important than to you. Its truths are being assailed in many quarters, and it is probable that ere long the assault may wax fierce. Very earnestly we exhort you to avail yourselves of all the helps within your reach to the attainment of an accurate and extensive knowledge of the Scriptures. "In understanding be ye men." When your minds are stored with the truth, you will "be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear." You will be endued with the spirit of "power, of love, and of a sound mind," and prepared to "earnestly contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints."

A piety thus nurtured and invigorated by communion with God in prayer and in the devout study of His Word, will find constant delight, as well as invigoration, in the public ordinances of the sanctuary: the ministry of the Word will be a source of rich enjoyment and profit; the Sabbath will be "a delight," its precious hours will not be wasted, but filled with acts of devotion and charity; you will guard its sanctity; the call to the Lord's Table will never be slighted, but remembering the peculiarly sacred command of the Saviour, "This do in remembrance of Me," you will "draw near" with "faith," and find "to your comfort" that in His own feast the Lord reveals to you the tenderness and beauty of His love and the unsearchable riches of His grace. The fire on your domestic altar will never die out, but morning and evening you will present unto God "incense . . . and a pure offering." In the fellowship of the saints you will find both refreshment and strength, you will set a higher value on the Class-meeting, which has been fitly designated "the pearl of Methodist privileges;" and realising your indebtedness to the Head of the Church, and your obligations to each other as members of His body, you will delight in speaking "often one to another." Walking with God, and ever remembering your high vocation to be His witnesses, you will separate yourselves from all evil; you will, in the fear of God, abstain from all rash speculations in business, from all undue absorption in the secularities of life, and from everything that is not thoroughly upright in your business transactions. In your dress and style of living you will not be conformed to this world; recreations and amusements which are doubtful, and have a tendency to dim the brightness of your piety, to diminish your strength and unfit you for communion with God, you will sedulously avoid; in a word, you will guard against all such compliance with the customs and maxims of the world as tends to deaden your sense of duty, quench the ardour of your devotion, and weaken your authority in reproving sin. And it will be our privilege, as your pastors, to rejoice over you as a "chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people."

As a brotherhood of ministers, we feel that the call to foster a spirit of aggressive piety is rendered more imperative by the removal from our ranks of many earnest, devoted, and useful brethren, amongst whom we may mention the names of Charles Prest and Samuel Romilly Hall, men who were ever alive to the importance not only of maintaining, but also of vigorously extending the work of God.

Entering upon the labours of another year, we are deeply concerned that the prosperity with which God has favoured us in the past year should lead to more abounding labour, and to a humbler dependence upon the Blessed Spirit. Let us not forget that the Head of the Church is seeking to raise our expectations still higher, to call forth our faith, and to equip us for better service and larger success. Let each member of our Church, whether in the tract-district, the Sunday-school, or the pulpit, respond to the Divine call, "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee." And while we work as though the success of the work depended wholly upon us, let us pray as if its success depended exclusively upon God. With every impulse and act of personal endeavour let there be the uplifting of the heart in devout pleading with God; whilst tilling and planting in the vineyard, let us cry without ceasing, "Let Thy work appear unto Thy servants, and Thy glory unto Thy children. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it." "Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen."

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF THE
IRISH CONFERENCE, 1876,
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1876.

REV. AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

IN presenting to you our fraternal Address, we feel constrained first to record our gratitude to Almighty God for permitting us to meet together under the Presidency of our highly respected and beloved friend, the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A.

We had hoped to be favoured with the presence of the Rev. John Rattenbury, whose interest in our affairs, and whose public services in our country, are well remembered by us. Disappointed in this, we have prayed that he may be sustained in affliction, restored to health, and enabled still longer to serve his day and generation according to the will of God.

The President's companions, the Rev. Dr. Punshon, the Rev. Dr. James, the Rev. J. W. Greeves, and the Rev. John Kilner, have done us good service, and we feel grateful to them for their visit, their sympathy, and their counsel.

Permit us to assure you that we rejoice with you in your prosperity. As sharers in your honours, we rejoice in the extension of your work in all its branches, and especially in the fruit as evidenced by the ingathering of many souls to your Church. The intelligence that you had set apart seven devoted brethren as Evangelists and Missionaries made us glad and hopeful ; and we trust that their efforts are being crowned with abundant blessing.

We most gratefully receive the kindly words of encouragement which you have been pleased to use in your reply to our Address of last year. We have often been discouraged by the flow of our people to other lands, and by the consequent difficulty of becoming a strong people in our own land ; but we rejoice to be assured that in your country, as in other countries, there are thousands who testify that they have found Methodism in Ireland to be as "a light shining in a dark place." Though surrounded by much that is dark, we have no misgivings as to our position in relation either to our country or to other Churches. We feel that we have a good history, and, with God's help, we mean to prove worthy of it,—preaching the same Gospel which our fathers preached, and by every means seeking to multiply the number of faithful witnesses for the glory of God and the good of our country. Though we are not able to report a large increase in our membership, in other respects we have had a good year. The financial returns are very satisfactory. Without any abatement of our interest in Foreign Missions, our Home work is much improved. To our long established departments we have recently added an Orphan Society ; by means of which relief is afforded to the more needy children of our deceased friends. The income of this young Society rapidly improves. Our Educational Institutions keep a prominent place amongst the kindred institutions of our country. The College in Belfast has furnished a good Report, showing prosperity in all its departments. The Connexional School in Dublin is embarrassed by its prosperity : want of suitable accommodation has been a serious drawback to its full development ; but this difficulty, we trust, is now near an end, as new buildings are about to be erected on a site already purchased.

We regret that, though we still feel the desirableness of our union with the Primitive Wesleyan Methodists, we have not yet been able to see our way through the difficulties which intervene. The Committee, however, has been re-appointed, with additional instructions ; in the hope that by the next Conference a final conclusion may be reached.

Our deliberations on the other and more important subject of Lay Representation have been (we are thankful to be able to say) much more successful. We have, by a solemn and intelligent vote, agreed to admit to our Conference well-chosen lay-brethren, in equal numbers with the ministerial representatives, for the transaction of all business not reserved by the Deed Poll. We cannot here mention this most happy and peaceful issue of our long-continued and anxious consideration without acknowledging our great indebtedness, as a Conference, to the wisdom and kindness of the President and the Ex-President. These honoured Ministers have sympathized with us in our difficulties, and have most effectually aided us in getting through them.

With you we desire to bow to the will of Him who, while He buries His workmen, carries on His work. The Rev. Charles Prest and the Rev. Samuel Romilly Hall, by the influence of their character and work, were ours as well as yours. Their memories are fragrant with us, and the impressions made by their public services here were blessed and abiding. Three of our brethren have ceased to work on earth, and the record of each of them is on high. The venerable John Armstrong will be remembered by many members of your Conference. He was a remarkable man amongst us. "In labours more abundant," his reaping followed his sowing more immediately than is common. He died full of faith as of years.

We are very happy in sending to you, as our Representatives, three very highly esteemed brethren: the Rev. Joseph W. M'Kay, (whom we nominate as Delegate,) the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen, and the Rev. Wesley Guard. These brethren have our entire confidence, and are well able to inform you of our affairs.

And now, Rev. and dear Fathers and Brethren, about to enter upon another year of holy and happy toil, we beg to re-assure you of our desire to be one with you,—one in consecration to the service of the same Master, and one in the unity of the same faith. And praying for you and for ourselves as one Body, we await the fulfilment of the promises. "God be merciful unto us, and bless us ; and cause His face to shine upon us ;" that His "way may be known upon earth," and His "saving health among all nations."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOSEPH W. M'KAY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1876,
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1876.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,

YOUR chosen Representatives, the Revs. Joseph W. M'Kay, Wallace M'Mullen, and Wesley Guard, have been, for their own sakes as well as for yours, cordially welcomed amongst us; and your brotherly greeting has been received by us with undiminished affection.

We are thankful that, during the past year, you have been so far favoured with prosperity that you can report an increase in the number of your members, and a general improvement in the various branches of your work. It is not that we attempt to estimate by such returns alone the quantity or quality of the success achieved; but we are sure that such improvement as you are able to report will be an encouragement to further labour and an increase of your power for good.

In the midst of your patient and persevering toil you have our unfailing sympathy; and every evidence of your progress is to us an occasion for gladness. We know that the result of all faithful service must be the heightening of the Master's joy. That He may, in due time, "see of the travail of His soul, and be satisfied," is an object worthy of our utmost effort. It will matter but little to any of us, in that day, whether the seed which we are continually sowing shall have been reaped from the fields of the home-land or from those of far distant climes, if our sheaves are but safely garnered for the Lord of the harvest.

Although your own increase has been comparatively small, you will not the less rejoice with us. Upwards of fourteen thousand members have been added to the roll of our Societies during the year. We have been gladdened by rich and copious blessings in all parts of our work, at home and abroad, and upon all classes of our people. In several of our Districts special Mission services have been carefully organized and vigorously conducted; and this, to the profit of multitudes and the salvation of many. Especially have we had cause to thank God for His peculiar favour to the children and youth of our schools and congregations. In the blessings thus bestowed both Ministers and their helpers have largely participated, and they who have sought to bless others have themselves been abundantly blessed.

On account of these things the sessions of our Conference have been to us a season of thanksgiving. At the same time all departments of our work have presented occasions for hopeful anticipation. We are expecting greater and better things. The spirit of union and brotherly love was never more prayerfully cherished among us. We have also rejoiced to receive and reciprocate the fraternal greetings of Christian brethren connected with other Churches. On the right hand and on the left we have gladly shown that we love all who love the "Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

Thus holding fellowship with the living, we cherish the memory of our departed fellow-labourers. From the ranks of our ministerial brotherhood and of our liberal and earnest co-workers, not a few have passed into the joyous rest of eternal but unwearying service. There all our comrades gather, both yours and ours, awaiting us who follow them as they have followed Christ.

In the discharge of our pastoral responsibilities we have had a serious and protracted conversation on the question of associating lay brethren with ourselves during the transaction of our financial and general business. We have carefully considered proposals which have been laid before us in the Report of a Committee composed of ministers and laymen; and being persuaded that the proposed association is not opposed to the essential principles of our economy, and believing that it will tend to the consolidation and efficiency of Methodism, we have given it our hearty approval. Various details will require further and patient study ; but we hope that the necessary arrangements will be completed during the year and adopted at our next Conference. We have fully recognised the gravity of the change ; but we have confidence in the fidelity of our people, and, above all, in the guidance and blessing of God. We pray earnestly that, with you and with us, the prosperity of the coming year may give assurance that the Divine blessing will, in this also, prosper the work of our hands upon us.

We have appointed as our Delegate to your next Conference our President, the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, who will be accompanied by the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., the Rev. W. Morley Punshon, LL.D., the Rev. B. Gregory, and the Rev. G. W. Olver, B.A. We trust that their visit will be to you and your people a time of much refreshing "from the presence of the Lord."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE
OF THE
METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1876,
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1876.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

WE feel grateful for your sympathetic letter, which shows that you fully realise our true position. We are convinced that in proportion as our circumstances are correctly ascertained by you, we shall continue to secure your affection and support.

In several respects the present year has been a prosperous one. It has been one of quiet revival. A gracious movement, which commenced last year in Dauphiny, has continued to progress satisfactorily up to the present time. Another revival has broken out and yielded precious fruit among a retired but important population of the Cevennes, where the spiritual condition of the people urgently calls for labourers faithful to evangelical doctrine.

The progress of the work has not been confined to Protestant centres. We exceedingly rejoice in the comparative success of our Missionary efforts among the Roman Catholics, as well as among the thinly scattered Protestants of the North and East of France, and of the environs of Paris. For a long period this portion of our work had not given so much promise as at the present time, and already we are gathering the first fruits of a future rich harvest. A number of Catholics, composed in some instances of entire and young families, have come under the influence of Bible truth, and have been added to our congregations as serious and regular hearers. In several places the attendance at the weekly prayer-meetings has considerably improved, and in those means of grace we have been visited with the quickening influences of the Spirit.

While we regret to have to report a small decrease in our membership, we are bound to state that this fact is not a true indication of the result of the labours of the past year. Upwards of a hundred and seventy new members have been added during the year, chiefly by conversions. In consequence, we should have had an encouraging increase, had we not reluctantly ceased to reckon as members persons who, for various reasons, were not meeting in Class. A few have been excluded for non-observance of the Sabbath. Others are so scattered, and reside at so great a distance from our centres, that they are deprived of pastoral oversight. And many excellent Christians, who contribute to our funds, and entertain the most friendly sentiments towards our Church, are wanting in cordiality towards our special form of Christian fellowship. Our firm stand on this point separates us, to our great regret, more and more from these attached and respected friends. But in this course we have only followed up with increased energy our efforts of previous years, efforts often attended with much labour and difficulty, which we have not failed, in the past, to signalize in our published documents.

It is also our duty to state that, in some localities, our position becomes one of increased delicacy, on account of the revival of ecclesiastical questions. Conformably to the early traditions of English Methodism, we have not required our members to assume the position of dissenters from the Reformed and Lutheran Churches established by law; and we cannot disguise the fact that while we wish our Church position to be complete, an altered relation towards those Churches will necessarily circumscribe within narrower limits our evangelistic work, even among the Protestants living in religious indifference. But we feel that this circumstance need not dishearten us, while in other parts of France immense districts are open to our labours among the ignorant and neglected Papists.

With gratitude to God we record the fact that in our Day-schools there has been progress both numerical and spiritual. The gracious work of awakening has, in particular, extended to both our boarding-schools at Nîmes. A goodly number of the pupils have, of their own accord, met together for prayer. We all the more regret that the establishment for boys, at the present time so promising spiritually, should not have a sufficient number of pupils to save us from pecuniary embarrassment in its maintenance. We fear that the extreme financial depression which now afflicts the South of France will prevent, for a time, some parents from making onerous sacrifices for their sons' instruction. It is, nevertheless, our conviction, that this period of trial should not arrest our important educational undertaking, especially as it is our chief resource for the training of our Ministers' sons, under the influence of our own Christian principles. But it should be known that in Lower Languedoc, where our work has realised its greatest extension, property that yielded a profit of fifteen or twenty per cent. has now fallen to a return of three per cent. This disastrous position affects our general resources, and you will not, therefore, consider our yearly recurrence to the pecuniary difficulties of our people as a wearisome repetition. Every successive year aggravates the circumstances of the country. In extensive districts the produce of the vine fails entirely, whilst late spring frosts blight the hopes of the silkworm raisers. From these causes, to which we must add the stagnation of commerce, numbers of manufacturers and landed proprietors are left without capital.

Notwithstanding these painful reverses in the largest portion of our field, there has been, in the entire Connection, a small progress in the receipts for our general work, and also for Missions, while on the contributions for the extinction of our Chapel debts there has been an increase of upwards of ten thousand francs.*

We have this year received as probationers for the ministry two sons of respected colleagues, and in this fact, as in former ones of a similar nature, we acknowledge the faithfulness of God, our Heavenly Father, towards the families of His servants, who have devoted their lives to the cause of Christ.

* So that, whilst we have purchased a new chapel, and ground on which to erect a school-chapel, the sum total of our Chapel debts has been decreased by £676.

As to the future, instructed by the experience of the past, we are convinced that the visits of Chairmen of Districts to all the principal Stations are essential, and cannot but advance the spiritual interests of the Churches. We are also convinced that united visits of Ministers to Circuits other than their own, to hold special services, would be of the greatest advantage, especially amongst the Roman Catholic populations.

Our Conference has been held this year at Anduze, in the Cevennes, amongst the descendants of the ancient Huguenots. Our friends in this town have cordially received our Ministers into their houses, and the Circuit has liberally contributed towards the expenses of the Conference.

After a full discussion of the subjects brought before the Conference, and especially after solemn spiritual converse with each other, we separate, impressed with the necessity of unreserved consecration to God and to our proper and exclusive work of saving souls. Our prayer is that we may be filled with the Spirit, and bring forth in richer abundance the fruit of the Spirit, that in all things we may be patterns to our flocks.

In view of the plans in consideration for the extension of the work in France, we have thought it right to appoint this year two Representatives, viz., our President, the Rev. W. Cornforth, and the Rev. J. Hocart, to confer with your Conference on these important measures.

We beg to nominate the Rev. James Hocart as the President of our next Conference, and respectfully request you to confirm his appointment.

Praying that abundant grace and wisdom from above may rest upon your Assembly, and guide and influence your deliberations, we are,

Honoured Fathers and Brethren,
Yours in Christ.

J. P. COOK, Secretary.

THE ANSWER
OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1876
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE
METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND
SWITZERLAND, 1876.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,

WE have received your letter of fraternal greeting by the hands of your highly esteemed Representatives, Messrs. Cornforth and Hocart, who have also, by word of mouth, informed us concerning the work which the Lord Jesus is accomplishing through you.

We rejoice to hear that you have shared the wide and gracious outpouring of the Spirit of God, for which all the Evangelical Churches have been called to give thanks. No Christian confederation, small or large, can live, if it be not favoured with repeated baptisms of that Holy Spirit of power, which again and again fell upon the Primitive Church. How comforting it is to know that in order to secure these visitations it is not necessary to wait for the putting forth of an arbitrary sovereignty, but only to "lift up holy hands" in the prayer of faith, which pleads the promise and expects its fulfilment.

We can the more cordially sympathize with your rejoicing over souls won to the faith of Christ, because we are partakers of a like joy, and have learnt from the Representatives of other Conferences who have visited us, that the gracious rain has fallen upon every part of the Methodist field. In Great Britain the accession of members has been larger than for many years past, and there is no indication of any lessening of the gracious work which has produced such gadding results. While these results have been very generally distributed over the country, remarkable success has been granted to carefully planned Revival Mission efforts, in which the preaching of the Gospel has been preceded and accompanied by much prayer on the part of the Church, and in connection with which painstaking and self-denying efforts have been made by house-to-house visitation, by open-air preaching, and other methods, to "compel" the people "to come in" to hear the Word of the Lord. How far social and political circumstances would permit you to make similar efforts, you can judge better than we.

We are thankful to hear that the work of God amongst you is affecting, at least in some degree, the Roman Catholic population around you. How to secure access for the truth as it is in Jesus, to the minds and hearts of Romanists, is a problem very difficult of solution. We are glad to know that in certain Districts you have been able to gain a hearing, and we are confident that your best hope of success, in such cases, is not in assailing, controversially, the Romish positions, so much as in declaring with impassioned earnestness the simple truth that man, though fallen and guilty, may be saved from sin and wrath by the grace of the Saviour, once crucified, now risen, and for ever glorified.

We are not surprised to hear that, in some cases, difficulties have arisen through your determination to enforce more perfectly the discipline of our Church, for we have passed through a similar experience in this country, and are not altogether clear of the difficulty even yet. So soon as an evangelistic movement begins to crystallize into a regular Church, there are many who find themselves compelled to choose between renouncing the Church of their early education and the Church of their spiritual birth. When such cases arise, it is well, if in our administration we can exhibit a tender forbearance without compromising principle. And in our relations to the Evangelical Churches around us, it will be well if we can continue to illustrate John Wesley's motto, and show ourselves "the friends of all, the enemies of none."

As to your financial position, we assure you of our sympathy with you under the painful privations which have come upon some of yourselves and some of your people; but we are relieved to find that you believe this to have arisen, for the most part, from temporary causes, which, by the good providence of God, may soon be removed.

We have arranged, in concert with your Representatives, for changes between the Ministers of your Conference and the French-speaking Ministers of the Channel Islands. The arrangement will not entail upon you any additional financial burden, and we confidently expect that it will prove advantageous to the work of God, both in the Islands and on the Continent. We have also anxiously considered some arrangements by which we may aid you alike in the work of aggression upon the sin and superstition around you, and in that of consolidating your own Churches. On this matter you will receive communications in detail from the Committee of our Missionary Society.

We gladly comply with your request in reference to the Presidency of your next Conference, and have appointed the Rev. James Hocart, Senior, to that office.

In conclusion, Brethren, we commend you to the God of all grace and consolation, and bid you "good luck in the name of the Lord."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY W. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

ADDRESS
OF
NONCONFORMIST MINISTERS IN NOTTINGHAM
TO THE
PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED IN NOTTINGHAM, AUGUST, 1876.

CHRISTIAN BRETHREN,

WE, who appear before you now, are Ministers of Christ, representing various Free Evangelical Churches in this town, outside your own Connexion. Eight or ten other brethren, sustaining a similar position to ourselves, would, no doubt, have gladly united with us this morning; but, this being the holiday season with many, they are from home, some of them very far away. From the force of circumstances, therefore, we are but an incomplete representation of the Free Church Ministry in this town; yet, even so, we are unwilling to allow this series of Meetings to pass without taking the opportunity of offering to you kindly and hearty Christian greeting in the name of the Lord.

We rejoice to think how much there is in common between us and you: the same great Father in heaven at whose throne we bow, the same Divine and glorious Redeemer in whom we trust, the same Holy Spirit dwelling in us, to enlighten, strengthen, and renew; whilst we believe we are all engaged in the same important work of turning men "from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God."

We are thankful not only for the great and good work which has been accomplished in connection with Methodism during many past years, but also for the encouraging increase in your membership which, as we hear, has been experienced during the last twelve months. May this increase be but the prelude to yet larger spiritual blessing during the coming Connexional year, both to you and to the Churches of Christ generally throughout the world !

We are pleased, dear Brethren, to observe your Missionary zeal, and congratulate you on the large sums raised by your congregations not only for Foreign Missions, but for a variety of other Evangelistic purposes.

But we feel ourselves drawn more particularly at this time to refer to what you, as well as we, must have observed,—the revival in many parts of our land of a spirit of Sacerdotalism, and of doctrines of Sacramental efficacy, alien from the primitive Gospel. Some of us were glad to hear from the Fernley Lecturer the other evening statements relative to the High-Priesthood of Christ, the common and equal priesthood of all believers in Jesus, and the non-priesthood, in any special sense, of the Christian ministry, in which both we ourselves fully concurred, and which we rejoiced to think might be regarded as the sentiments of your entire Denomination. Brethren, let us “stand fast in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free;” and, although our forms of organization may be diverse, let us be one in our steadfast opposition to the Priestly and Sacramental dogmas which in some quarters are becoming so sadly prevalent.

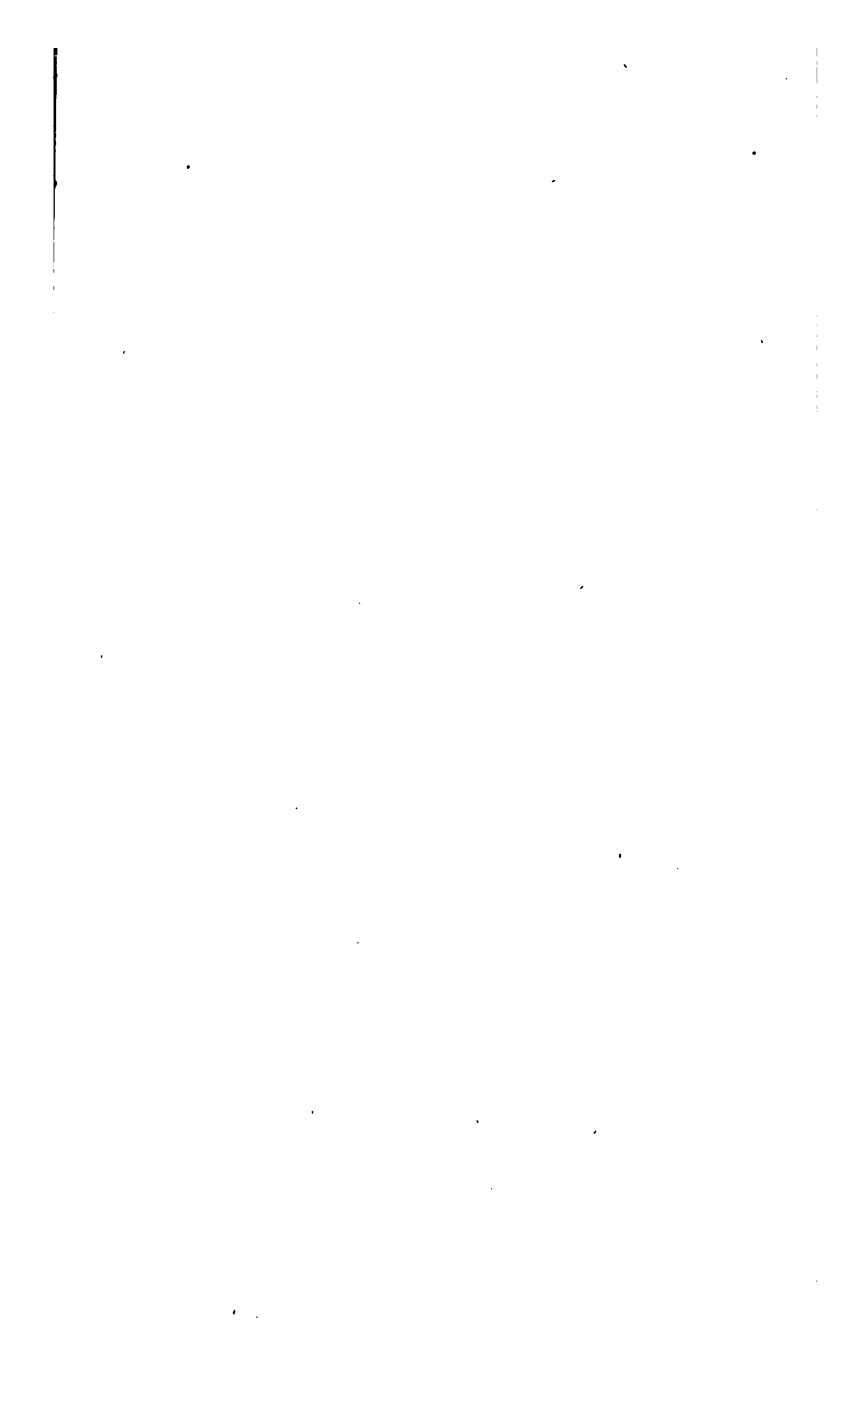

We desire also to express our sympathy with you in the persecution from which many of your members in the rural districts are suffering through the un-Christian intolerance of certain adherents of the State Church. Although we are glad to say that in our own town a more enlightened and liberal spirit prevails, it is a fact that members of our own Communion in other parts are frequently exposed to the same annoyances and sufferings for conscience sake as your brethren and sisters. May it be that our united remonstrances shall evoke so decided an expression of public opinion on behalf of freedom of conscience and liberty of worship as shall make persecutors upon even a small scale restrain their unhallowed zeal for very shame.

Brethren, we are glad to see you in this old historic town of Nottingham. You have been long coming ;

but we welcome you at last. Now you are here, we desire for you very happy and useful meetings. May the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of the fear of the Lord be upon you ; and may it be given to us all to feel that the prayer of our Lord is being fulfilled more and more ; and that as He and the Father are one, so are we, His disciples,—Methodists, Baptists, Congregationalists, Presbyterians, or by whatever other name we may be at present known,—all one in Him who is “ Head over all things to His Church.”

Signed, WILLIAM R. STEVENSON, M.A.,

APPENDIX II.

MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, TUESDAY, JULY 25TH, 1876.

MOVED by the Rev. John Hartley; seconded by Mr. R. B. Brierley; supported by Mr. Skelton Cole:

1. That this Committee desires to recognise in the continued and increasing prosperity of the Society evident proofs alike of the good will of the Churches and of the favour of Almighty God; but is nevertheless convinced that such prosperity can only be sustained by the steady and systematic working of the Missionary organization, and especially by the zealous and persevering efforts of the Collectors, Secretaries, Treasurers, and Committees at home and abroad.

Moved by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, M.A.; seconded by Mr. John H. Eaton, of Ceylon; supported by Mr. William Ward:

2. That this Committee rejoices to learn that there is a growing demand for additional Missionaries, both European and Native; but regrets to find that the supply of suitable men is inadequate, and that, as a consequence, the period of their course of training is inconveniently shortened. The Committee feels, therefore, called upon to pray "the Lord of the harvest" to send out more labourers to reap the fields which are white unto the harvest.

Moved by the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A.; seconded by the Rev. Dr. Ryerson; supported by Mr. Quibell:

3. That this Committee regards with much satisfaction the arrangements which have been made for the better organization of Christian Education, and especially of the female population in the East ; and views with much thankfulness the establishment of Normal Schools and Theological Institutions for the more thorough training of Teachers and of Native Ministers.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Osborn ; seconded by the Rev. George Sargeant ; supported by Mr. S. R. Healey.

4. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Dr. Jobson and Mr. James S. Budgett, the General Treasurers ; to the Rev. William B. Boyce, George T. Perks, M.A., and Dr. Punshon, the General Secretaries ; to the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., Honorary Secretary ; and to the Committee of management, for their services to the Society during the past year ; and that, in view of Mr. Boyce's retirement from the office of Senior Secretary, his long and honourable connection with Methodist Missions at home and abroad, be specially recognised.

APPENDIX III.

I.—ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION FUND,

HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, JULY 21st, 1876.

PRESENT, the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy and Mr. John Meek, the General Treasurers of the Schools' Fund; the Rev. Frederick Payne and the Rev. John Harvard, the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund; the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. Mewburn, the Treasurers of the Children's Fund; and the Rev. Henry J. Pope, the Secretary of the Children's Fund, and others.

It was reported that the number of Ministers' children upon the Fund during the past year has been 740; in the Schools, 260 boys and 127 girls; receiving education allowances at home, 353 boys and girls. The cost has been £20,405. 2s. 3d.; and the deficiency provided by the Children's Fund has been £5,757. 8s. This is £3,329. 7s. more than last year.

As it appears that the claim upon the Children's Fund is rapidly exhausting the accumulated balance, the Committee requested the Conference to appoint a Special Mixed Committee, to meet early in the year, and to consider the best means of raising the income of the Schools' Fund, and regularly controlling the expenditure.

It was unanimously resolved,—

1. That having heard the Report of the Governing Body, together with the Reports of the Examiners to the Syndicate of the University of Cambridge and of the Head Master, the Committee records its hearty satisfaction with the results thus far realised of the new system under which the School for Boys is now administered ; and recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Governing Body, with its Treasurer and Secretaries, for the very arduous and valuable services which they have rendered during the year.

2. That the thanks of the Conference be given—

(1.) To the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy and Mr. John Meek, the General Treasurers; the Rev. Frederick Payne and the Rev. John Harvard, the General Secretaries ; and to the Treasurers, Secretaries, and Committees of the Schools at Clapton and Southport, for the diligent and efficient discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year.

(2.) To the Rev. Henry H. Chettle and the Rev. John H. Lord, the Governors of the two Branches of the School for Boys ; and to Mrs. Chettle and Mrs. Lord, together with the Ladies having charge of the Schools for Girls, for their kind attention to the comfort of the children under their care during the year.

II.—SCHEME FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE GROVE SCHOOL.

I.—THE GOVERNING BODY.

1. The School and School-property shall be managed by a Governing Body, to which shall be transferred the powers as to the management of the Schools and School-property now possessed by the existing Committees of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove Schools. This Governing Body, may, under the direction of the Conference, procure incorporation, and if they do so the School-property shall be vested in the body so incorporated. This Governing Body shall consist of Ministers and laymen.

2. The President, Ex-President, and Secretary of the Conference ;

The General Treasurers and the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund ;

The General Treasurers and the General Secretary of the Children's Fund ;

The Chairman for the time being of the Leeds, Halifax and Bradford, Bristol, and Bath Districts ;

The Governors and Head Master of the School for the time being ;

shall be ex-officio Members of the Governing Body.

There shall be twenty-four other Members, to be called elected Members.

3. The first elected Members of the Governing Body shall be appointed by the Conference of 1875, and shall hold office until the Conference of 1878.

4. The twenty-four elected Members shall retire from office at the times and in the proportions following :—

At the Conference of 1878, eight of the elected Members, to be determined by ballot among themselves, unless they shall otherwise agree, shall go out of office :—

At the Conference of 1879, eight of the remaining number of the elected Members, to be determined in like manner, shall go out of office :—

At the Conference of 1880, the remaining eight shall go out of office. In each instance the places of the retiring Members of the Governing Body shall be filled up by the Conference ; and at every subsequent Conference one-third of the elected Members of the Governing Body, being those who have been longest in office, shall go out of office, and their places shall be supplied in like manner. No Member of the Governing Body retiring from office shall be eligible for immediate re-election except in special cases. The Members who are to retire in rotation shall hold office until replaced.

5. Of the Members thus elected by the Conference, one shall be nominated every three years by the Masters of the School, other than the Head Master.

6. One shall be nominated annually by the Associates of the School. All pupils of Kingswood, New Kingswood, or Woodhouse Grove School, who shall have left before the date of this Scheme, and all pupils of this School who shall hereafter receive a certificate of honour or merit from this School, shall, if annual Subscribers to the funds of the School, be called Associates.

The mode of nomination under this and the preceding clause shall be fixed by the Governing Body. The Conference shall not be bound to accept a nominee under either of these two clauses.

7. Every Member of the Governing Body must be a Minister in full connexion, or a Member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. No Master of the School, other than the Head Master, shall be a Member of the Governing Body.

8. A Member of the Governing Body shall vacate his office :—

- (1.) By death ;
- (2.) By voluntary retirement, to be signified by him to the Governing Body in writing ;
- (3.) By resolution of the Conference removing him from office ;
- (4.) By becoming lunatic or bankrupt, or by the liquidation of his affairs ; or
- (5.) By neglecting, for one year, to attend any Meeting of the Governing Body, or any Sub-Committee thereof.

Vacancies under this clause shall not be filled up until the period when the Member vacating office would have retired in rotation.

9. The Governing Body may act, notwithstanding vacancies in their body.

10. Subject to any regulations which may be made by the Conference, the Governing Body may fix their own times and places of meeting, their mode of summoning Meetings and transacting business, their quorum and procedure. They may appoint Sub-Committees with such powers as they think fit. They shall keep minutes and accounts, and may appoint a Vice-Chairman, who shall act in the absence of the President of the Conference. They shall also appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer, and may appoint any other officers.

11. The Accounts of the School up to the end of June in each year shall be audited in the month of July in that year, by a professional Auditor to be appointed by the General Committee of the Schools' Fund. No Member of the Governing Body shall be an Auditor. A copy of the Balance-Sheet so audited shall be immediately forwarded to the General Secretaries of the Schools' Fund.

II.—THE SCHOOL AND ITS MANAGEMENT.

12. The Governors and the Head Master shall be the chief officers of the School. The Governors shall be appointed and removed by the Conference on the recommendation of the Governing Body or otherwise. The Head Master shall be appointed by the Governing Body, and may be removed by the Conference after six months' notice, without assigning cause.

13 Each Governor shall be a Minister in full connexion with the Conference; and if suspended from his office as a Minister, shall thereby vacate the office of Governor. If a Governor die, or be suspended from his office as a Minister, or be incapacitated for the discharge of his duties in the interval between the sessions of the Conference, the Governing Body shall make due provision for the temporary discharge of the duties of Governor.

14. The Governing Body may dismiss the Head Master without assigning cause on six months' notice; but the resolution dismissing him must be passed at two consecutive meetings of the Governing Body, held at an interval of not more than four weeks, or less than two weeks. Within a month from the second meeting, the Head Master may lodge an appeal to the Conference with the President. The dismissal shall not take effect pending the appeal, but shall take effect immediately on the confirmation by the Conference of the dismissal, if the six months have elapsed.

15. Nevertheless, for urgent cause, the Governing Body may, by resolution passed at a Special Meeting duly convened for that express purpose, and affirmed by not less than two-thirds of the whole existing Governing Body, suspend the Head Master from his office, and make temporary provision for the discharge of his duties.

Full notice and opportunity of defence, both against such dismissal and against such suspension, shall be given to the Head Master.

16. Every Head Master, previously to entering into office, shall be required to sign a declaration in the Minute Book of the Governing Body, in the following form :—

"I, _____, declare that I will always, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties of Head Master of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove School during my tenure of the office, and that if I am removed by the Conference, or the Governing Body, according to the constitution of the said School, I will acquiesce in such removal, and will thereupon relinquish all claim to the Mastership and its emoluments, and will deliver up to the Governing Body, or as they direct, possession of all their property then in my possession or occupation."

17. The Governors and Head Master shall reside in the dwelling-houses assigned for their respective residence. Each shall have the occupation and use of such house and any other property of the Trust of which he becomes occupant in respect of his official character and duties, and not as tenant, and shall, if removed from office, deliver up possession of such house and other property to the Governing Body, or as they direct. He shall not, except with the permission of the Governing Body, permit any other person to occupy such house or any part thereof.

18. The Governors and Head Master shall give their personal attention to the duties of their respective offices, and none of them, during his tenure of office, shall accept or hold any office or appointment which, in the opinion of the Governing Body, may interfere with the proper performance of his duties. But this limitation shall not apply to any appointment made by the Conference.

19. No officer of the School shall receive or demand from any boy in the School, or from any person whomsoever on behalf of any such boy, any gratuity, fee, or payment, except such payments as are prescribed or authorised by the Governing Body.

20. The Governing Body shall have the general superintendence and management of the School, and may make any regulations not inconsistent with this Scheme. They shall prescribe the general subjects of instruction, the relative prominence and value to be assigned to each group of subjects, the division of the year into School terms and vacations, the School-hours, the number of pupils, and the maximum number of holidays to be given in the terms. They shall take general supervision of the sanitary condition of the School-buildings and arrangements, and make all necessary repairs, additions, and improvements. In particular the Governing Body may, out of such funds as may be placed in their hands for the purpose, enlarge the School-buildings so as to accommodate such number of pupils as the Conference may from time to time direct. They shall determine what number of Assistant-Masters shall be employed. They shall every year assign the amount which they think proper to be paid for the purpose of maintaining Assistant-Masters and other Teachers, and a proper plant or apparatus for carrying on the instruction given in the School.

21. Subject to the rules prescribed by or under the authority of this Scheme, the Governors shall be responsible for the religious instruction and oversight of the School. Subject, as aforesaid, the Governors shall also superintend the domestic management of the School.

22. Subject to the rules prescribed by or under the authority of this Scheme, the Head Master shall have under his control the choice of books, the method of teaching, the arrangement of classes, and generally the whole educational management of the School.

23. The Governor and Head Master jointly shall have the power of giving holidays, not exceeding the maximum number of holidays to be given in the terms.

24. Subject to appeal to the Governing Body, the Head Master shall be the supreme executive authority in respect of School-studies and discipline in School-hours, and the Governors in other respects; but the system of discipline shall, as far as possible, be the same throughout, and shall be arranged by the Governor and Head Master in concert. The Governor and Head Master jointly may remove a boy from the School, but his parents or guardians may appeal to the Governing Body for his restoration.

25. The Governor and Head Master shall jointly have the power of appointing and of dismissing any Assistant-Master or other Teacher, and shall determine in what proportion the sum assigned by the Governing Body for the maintenance of Assistant-Masters and other Teachers, or of plant or apparatus, ought to be divided among the various persons and objects for the aggregate of which it is assigned ; and the Governing Body shall pay the same accordingly.

26. Any matter on which the Governor and Head Master shall not agree, shall be referred to the Governing Body.

27. The Governors shall receive such payment as the Conference, after taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case, shall direct.

28. The Head Master shall receive such payment as the Governing Body from time to time may appoint.

29. Subject to the provisions established by or under the authority of this Scheme, and to the regulations of the Conference from time to time, the School shall be open without charge to the sons of Wesleyan Ministers, or of deceased Wesleyan Ministers.

30. If the number of applications for admission should exceed the number of vacancies, the order of admission shall be decided by the Governing Body, having regard to the special circumstances of each case.

31. No boy shall, without special leave of the Governing Body, be admitted into the School under the age of ten years, and no boy, without such special leave, shall remain in the School beyond the end of the School term in which he attains the age of nineteen years. And the Governors and Head Master shall make regulations, subject to the approval of the Governing Body, for the withdrawal of boys from the School in cases where, through idleness or incapacity, they have fallen considerably below the standard of position and attainment proper for their age.

32. No boy shall, without special leave, remain more than six years in the School. Subject to the veto of the Conference, special leave to remain for any further period may be given by the Governing Body on the recommendation of the Governor and Head Master. Such further period shall be granted either by way of exhibition, or on such payment as the Governing Body may think fit.

33. Every applicant for admission shall be examined, by or under the direction of the Head Master, who shall appoint convenient times and places for that purpose, and give reasonable notice to the parents. Such examination shall be graduated according to the age of the boy, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body. No boy shall be admitted to the School except on the terms of undergoing such examination, and being found fit for admission. The Governing Body shall call for a certificate of health, and may, in case of need, call for a certificate of character.

34. There shall be, once in every year, an examination of the School by Examiners appointed for that purpose by the Governing Body, and paid by them, but otherwise unconnected with the School. The Examiners shall report to the Governing Body on the proficiency of the scholars, and on the position of the School as regards instruction and discipline, as shown by the result of the examination. They shall also mention the name of the boy who has shown the highest attainments, and the names of any other boys who, in their judgment, are worthy of praise or substantial reward. But they need not report any name if, in their judgment, the result of the examination is wholly unsatisfactory.

35. The Governors and Head Master respectively shall make Annual Reports to the Governing Body as to the general condition of the School, and as to any special occurrences during the year. They may also mention the names of any boys who, in their judgment, are worthy of praise or substantial reward, having regard both to proficiency and to conduct.

36. The Scholarships now given at the two Schools shall be attached to this School. The Conference Scholarships shall continue to be given.

37. The Governing Body shall make provision for such further Scholarships and Exhibitions as the funds of the School, or any funds specially given for the purpose, will allow, and, subject to the terms of such gifts, may x the terms of election to all Scholarships.

38. The School shall be divided into two departments, an Upper School and a Lower School. Subject to the directions, from time to time, of the Governing Body, the Upper and Lower Schools shall be so arranged that the pupils pass from the Lower to the Upper School at an age of about thirteen years.

39. The Upper School shall be divided into Classical and Modern Departments.

40. Subject to any directions, from time to time, of the Governing Body, after consultation with the Governors and Head Master as to matters within their respective provinces, the subjects of instruction shall be—

In both the Schools.—Thorough English education, Biblical instruction, History, Geography, Singing, and Drawing.

Lower School.—Writing, Latin, French, Arithmetic, Elementary Mathematics, and Object-Lessons in Science.

Upper School—Classical Side.—Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, and Physical Science.

Modern Side.—Latin, French German, Mathematics, Book-keeping Land Surveying, Physical Science, and Political Economy.

General.

41. The Governing Body may appoint a Steward or Stewards, and a Matron or Matrons, and fix their salaries and duties.

42. The Governing Body may receive donations or endowments for the general purposes of the School, or for any Scholarships, Exhibitions, or other special purposes of the School.

43. If the Conference shall, at any time, resolve to admit to the School boys not the sons of Wesleyan Ministers, the Governing Body may admit such boys on such terms as they, subject to any Resolutions of the Conference, shall think expedient. In that case the Governing Body may extend the School, either on the hostel or house system.

44. The Governing Body shall make, in the month of July in each year, a Report to the Conference, on the state of the School; such Report to be accompanied by the Auditor's Report.

45. The expenses of the School shall be defrayed by the Governing Body out of such moneys as shall, under the authority of the Conference, be paid over to them by the General Committee of the Schools' Fund.

46. The Governing Body may, with the sanction of Conference, alter this Scheme.

APPENDIX IV.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW ON CHAPEL AFFAIRS,

HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, JULY 24TH, 1876.

PRESENT, the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Henry W. Williams, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Edwin H. Tindall, Secretary of the Chapel Committee; the Rev. Messrs. P. N. Andrews, John Bedford, F. W. Briggs, M.A., Joseph Bush, J. Clulow, G. Dorey, W. Ford, Joseph Hargreaves, John Hartley, C. Haydon, J. Also, Messrs. Eli Atkin, James Barlow, John Berrie, T. P. Bunting, G. H. Chubb, W. Collier, John Dyson, W. James, J. Edge, W. Pearce, W. W. Pocock, T. W. Pocock, W. Sissons, and others.

The Rev. Edwin H. Tindall read the Report for the year 1875-6, of which the following is an abstract:—

The Income from all Sources is £9,581. 2s. 10d.; being an increase on the year from ordinary sources of £340. 10s. 3d.

The Subscriptions and Collections for the "North Wales Chapel Fund" amount to £598, being an increase on the year of £4. 15s. 7d.

The Subscriptions and Collections for the "South Wales Chapel Fund" amount to £32. 10s. 3d.

I. BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

Erections sanctioned.

136 Chapels, at an estimated cost of £213,177; 8 Ministers' houses, £7,758; 27 School Rooms, £23,291;

93 Alterations and Enlargements, £58,662; 89 Modifications, £40,581; 40 Organs, £9,643, have been sanctioned by the Committee. This is an increase of 60 cases and £47,696, compared with last year. The temporary debt sanctioned is £60,345, being 22 $\frac{7}{8}$ per cent. on the outlay. The aid promised by the Committee to new Chapels is, in Grants, £5,580; in Loans, £18,695.

Sales.

The Committee have sanctioned the sale of 36 Chapels, 2 Schools, 3 Ministers' houses, 2 cottages, and 12 plots of land. 34 Chapels, 2 Schools, and 3 Ministers' houses, are to be superseded by more commodious erections.

Erections completed.

In the following cases the conditions agreed upon with the Committee have been observed:—79 Chapels, costing £168,869; 6 Ministers' houses, £3,804; 14 School Rooms, £14,489; 54 Enlargements, etc., £36,085; 33 Organs, £7,412. In 60 cases the debt is larger than the amount allowed by £18,504.

There are also 25 cases for which Connexional sanction was not sought, and on which the per-centage of debt is 51 $\frac{1}{4}$. The entire outlay, £12,128.

During the year the Committee have paid towards new Chapels,—Grants, £2,480; Loans, £5,055.

II. RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

Grants.

To the Trustees of 83 Chapels £2,425 in Grants have been paid. On 67 of these no debt now remains.

Loans.

£2,319 in Loans have been advanced to meet £3,259 raised by Trustees.

The Loan instalments received during the year, have amounted to £8,529. 16s. 7d. on the Relief account, and £3,160. 5s. 3d. on the Erections'-Fund account. The Loans now in operation on both accounts are 508. The South Wales Loan Committee have advanced £127. 10s., and the North Wales Committee £230. in Loans.

III. LOCAL EFFORTS.

The sums paid off by local efforts and surplus income amount to £20,265.

Contributions to Circuit Funds.

2,799 Trusts have contributed £35,446, being an increase of 78 Trusts, and £2,593 in contributions.

IV. SUMMARY.

The total amount of debts discharged is £40,930, making £1,117,477 in the last 22 years.

The total sum contributed in Great Britain, in the last year, as far as ascertained, is £300,182.

V. GENERAL MANAGEMENT OF TRUST ESTATES.

The returns include particulars relating to 6,512 separate Trust Estates. There is an increase of 330 in the number insured against fire, and a further increase in the number free from debt.

VI. LEGAL AFFAIRS.

Valuable aid has been rendered during the year in matters affecting Wesleyan Trusts by the Board of Charity Commissioners.

The Committee have approved a Model Deed for Ministers' Houses in Scotland, which has been prepared with great care by persons familiar with Scottish law and usage.

No action has as yet been taken in an application to the Court of Exchequer for an authoritative decision respecting the meaning of the 8th and 78th Sections of the "Stamp Act, 1870;" but a case is in course of preparation, and it is hoped that this matter will very speedily be settled.

The following Resolutions were adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. Joseph Hargreaves ; seconded by Mr. W. W. Pocock :

1. That this Meeting views with great satisfaction the steady growth which continues to distinguish the work of this department. It rejoices in the aggressive efforts now being put forth, in connection with Chapel building, in order to meet the spiritual wants of our country, as well as in the fact that there is every prospect of such efforts being increased. It is also gratified to learn that the circumstances of the Relief Loan Fund have so far improved as to justify the Committee, in the majority of cases, in voting as Loans sums equal in amount to those raised by Trustees for the reduction of debt.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford ; seconded by Mr. T. Percival Bunting :

2. That this Meeting is profoundly impressed with the loss which the Connexion has sustained during the year in the removal by death of the Rev. William Edwards, Senior Secretary of the Chapel Committee, and desires to place upon record its high appreciation of his eminent services. His clear judgment, his quickness of perception, his accurate knowledge of Methodist law and usage, as well as his genial manners and uniform Christian courtesy, specially qualified him for a position the duties of which he discharged with exemplary diligence, unwearied devotion, and Christian fidelity. And this Meeting devoutly prays that the great Head of the Church would continue to grant to the Connexion a succession of such men, who, with equal ability and fidelity, may serve the cause of Christ and advance the interests of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Moved by the Rev. John Rattenbury ; seconded by Mr. G. H. Chubb :

3. That this Meeting deems it right to record its sincere regard for the character of the late Mr. Thomas Hazlehurst, of Runcorn, whose services to the cause of God in many ways, and especially in his munificent gifts of chapels, have been of great value, and will confer lasting benefits upon the Connexion ; and the Meeting earnestly prays that a similar spirit of Christian zeal and liberality may rest upon many survivors.

Moved by the Rev. James R. Webb ; seconded by Mr. James Barlow :

4. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to the District Chapel Secretaries and Committees, to the Circuit Chapel Secretaries, and to the Ministers and Trustees who have acted with them, for their valuable services to this Department of Methodism, and the Meeting earnestly calls their attention to the fact that a very large number of trusts yet remain uninsured against loss by fire.

Moved by the Rev. John Hartley ; seconded by Mr. W. Pearce :

5. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to Messrs. Healey and Haworth, the Treasurers ; to the Rev. Edwin H. Tindall, the General Secretary ; to the Rev. John Bedford, Secretary of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes ; and to the Committee, for their diligent and faithful services.

APPENDIX V.

METROPOLITAN WESLEYAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

THE following Statement was read by the Secretary :—

Since the last Conference four Metropolitan Chapels have been opened for public worship, viz. ; Finsbury Park, September 3rd ; South Norwood, September 9th ; Hammersmith, October 1st ; Paddington, July 3rd.

A temporary iron structure has been erected at Holly Park, in the Highgate Circuit, and another at Mile End Road, on sites which have been secured by the help of the Committee.

In addition to the two sites just named, the Committee has appointed Sub-Committees of inspection with regard to six other sites, some of which are still under consideration.

Three erections have been sanctioned, and seven cases, which have been completed on final schedules during the year, now begin to repay their loans.

The repayments of loans during the year amount to £1,698.

The ordinary income is a little in excess of that of the preceding year.

Since the commencement of the Fund, the total amount of loans voted for sites is upwards of £24,000, and for erections about £30,000 ; so that the Loan Fund has been made available to the extent of about £54,000.

Grants from the Ordinary and Special Funds amount to £66,550.

The Committee gratefully acknowledges the action of the last Conference, which directed that annual collections on behalf of the Fund should be made in all the Metropolitan Chapels on the Lord's-day, and recommended that further help should be rendered by donations and subscriptions, and by an Annual Public Meeting in each of the Metropolitan Circuits ; and also directed that in the May Meetings of the London District Committees the interests of this Fund should be considered when the Connexional Funds are under review.

Mr. S. D. Waddy, M.P., has laid the Committee under great obligations by the preparation of a series of tables, which will be found at the close of the forthcoming Report, showing the vast disproportion between the Wesleyan-Methodist accommodation provided in London and that in many of the provincial towns of England, in several English counties, and in some of the British Colonies.

The Committee has had deeply to deplore, during the year, the removal by death of three of its most prominent members, viz. ; the Rev. Charles Prest, the Rev. Benjamin Frankland, B.A., and Mr. W. T. Whelpton, one of the Auditors.

The following Resolutions were then adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. Joseph Bush ; seconded by Mr. Eli Atkin ; supported by Mr. John Berrie :

1. That this Meeting rejoices in the continued progress which marks the operations of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund ; and especially in the spiritual benefits conferred upon many in the Metropolis through its instrumentality. It desires gratefully to recognise the Providence of God by which its history has been distinguished, and at the same time to express its conviction that the moral necessities of London, which are increasing every year, call loudly for increased effort on the part of this and all similar institutions.

Moved by the Rev. Charles Haydon ; seconded by Mr. T. J. Moore ; supported by Mr. Samuel M'Comas :

2. That the thanks of this Meeting be given to Sir Francis Lycett and Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P., the Treasurers; to the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference, General Secretary; to the Revs. J. A. Armstrong and Thomas Allen, and Mr. John B. Reynolds, Secretaries, for their faithful and efficient services during the year.

APPENDIX VI.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE HOME
MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND,

HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, ON

MONDAY, JULY 24TH, 1876.

PRESENT, the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. John W. Greeves, and Mr. John Vanner, the Treasurers; the Rev. John Bond, the Secretary; and most of the members of the Committee.

and Aberdeen, Mr. C. B. Davidson; Zetland, Mr. J. T. Henry.

The list of Grants for Extraordinaries was read by the Rev. John Bond, and was revised and adopted by the Committee.

The Report of the Committee of Management was submitted by the Rev. John W. Greeves, who also read various extracts from the Minutes of the proceedings of the Committee.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; and seconded by Mr. Joseph Maltby, of Lincoln:

1. That, in receiving the Report of the Committee of Management, this Committee desires to record its deep sense of the loss which the Connexion has sustained by the removal of the Rev. Charles Prest, and adopts the Resolution passed by the Committee of Management on the occasion of his death:

“The Committee, at this its first Meeting, receives with deep and poignant sorrow the intelligence of the death of the late General Secretary of this Department, the Rev. Charles Prest. It is keenly alive to the severe, and in some respects irreparable, loss which is entailed upon our Home Mission work, and the Connexion at large, by this mournful bereavement. At the same time, it bows with reverent submission to the will of Him who, whether in giving or taking away, doeth all things well. It offers its devout thanksgivings to God for the long career of honourable and successful toil which was granted to Mr. Prest, and desires to place on record its high appreciation of the many and invaluable services which he was enabled to render, both to his own Church and to the cause of Evangelical Christianity in general. When he was fully and formally set apart for the work of the ministry, he immediately assumed a foremost place among the men of remarkable energy and promise, whom God was at that time raising up in our Body; and he retained that place till the close of his life. This Committee remembers the fidelity, zeal, and success, with which, in times of severe trial and danger to our Connexion, he stood forth in defence of the fundamental principles of our organization and Connexional trusts and interests, then placed in jeopardy. As Secretary of the Committee of Privileges for nineteen years, his services were of the highest value; and, on his election to the Chair of the Conference, and consequent vacation of his Secretaryship, these services were acknowledged by the special thanks of the Conference. He was, indeed, a most able and successful administrator in whatever department of service he was called upon to act. He was, from the beginning, a luminous expositor of Scripture, and most weighty in the practical enforcement of Christian morality; and, with advancing years,—in spite of the great demands upon his time by the labours of a busy public life,—he became ripe in Scriptural and experimental knowledge, and increasingly impressive as a preacher of the Gospel.

“But the services which he rendered to the Home Mission work of Methodism constitute his chief claim to distinction and loving remembrance. To him, under God, is due, in great measure, that remarkable expansion of our agency over which the Committee has so often had reason to rejoice. The adaptation of our system to the doing of strictly Missionary Work among the industrial masses in our towns, and in the destitute rural districts, was mainly due to his sagacity and energy. His encouragement and enlightened patronage of the Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations greatly tended to the development of that new and productive source of income, while, at the same time, it served to awaken a greatly increased sympathy with Christian work among our families and Sunday-schools. His deep-seated and constant affection for his brethren in the ministry, and his efforts for the improvement of their allowances in our poorer Circuits, greatly and deservedly endeared him to them all. His interest in our work in the Army and Navy was very deep; and, by the labours which he directed among soldiers, and the influence which he acquired with the military authorities, he both served the interests of our work, and became a remarkable favourite with Wesleyans in the Army. He was also permitted to live long enough to witness the establishment, in several Districts, of a scheme of evangelization by Ministers designated as District Missionaries. He had long desired an arrangement of this kind, and sincerely rejoiced in it.

"The Committee, moreover, cannot omit a brief reference to his ardent attachment to evangelical Protestantism; and his bold and courageous defence of it on more than one critical occasion. It desires also to record its admiration of the steadfastness, integrity, and self-devotion which uniformly marked his public character; and the mingled purity, geniality, and cheerfulness which made friendly intercourse with him at once so happy and so edifying.

"Finally, the Committee presents to Mrs. Prest and her bereaved family the expression of its deep sympathy; and earnestly prays that, with the sorrow occasioned by their irreparable loss, may be mingled much of that consolation which was so abundantly vouchsafed to Mr. Prest himself during his last illness."

Moved by the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay; and seconded by Mr. James E. Vanner, of London:

2. That the Committee thankfully acknowledges the grace of God, and the power of the Holy Ghost, in the success which has attended the various agencies of Methodism during the past year, and anew commends the work in which the Home Missionary Committee is engaged, whether in Circuits, by Home Missionary Ministers, by Army Chaplains, or by District Missionaries, to the sympathy, prayers, and help of the Methodist people, and to Him who rules over all for His effectual blessing.

Moved by Mr. James Barlow, of Bolton; and seconded by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, M.A.:

3. That the Committee regrets that the Report on Lay Agency is not in a sufficient state of forwardness to be presented to this Meeting, and requests that the Conference will direct the Committee of Management, not only to complete their inquiries into this subject during the ensuing year, but also to consider what changes the experience of the last twenty years has shown to be necessary in the Organization and Administration of the Fund generally, and report to the next Conference.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. W. Thompson, of Lynn; and supported by Mr. W. W. Pocock, of London:

4. That, while heartily approving of the efforts which are being made to increase the Allowances of Ministers when they are manifestly insufficient, the Committee especially expresses its satisfaction with what has been accomplished by means of District Sustentation Funds, and repeats the recommendation that in all Districts a Sustentation Fund be established, and that those Districts which have, or can obtain, a surplus should send it to the General Treasurers, in order that it may be used for the benefit of Districts less favourably situated.

Moved by the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A.; and seconded by the Rev. Dr. Williams:

5. That the thanks of this Committee be given to those Ministers and friends who have advocated the claims of our Home Missions during the year; to those who have given valuable personal labour to our Home Work; to the subscribers and collectors; and to those young persons and children who have so largely aided the Home Mission Fund by Juvenile Associations.

Moved by Mr. Samuel R. Healey, of Liverpool; and seconded by Mr. William Mewburn, of Banbury:

6. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to the Rev. John W. Greeves and Mr. John Vanner, the Treasurers; to the Rev. John Bond, the Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their valuable services during the year.

APPENDIX VII.

2. The Cornwall District, in addition to the £162, is allowed to distribute the increase in the total contributions to the Fund raised in the District.

DISTRICT SUSTENTATION FUNDS.

The probable Surplus from various Districts and the claims of other Districts having been taken into consideration, it was resolved,

1. That the following amounts should be reserved for distribution when the conditions on which they are granted should be fulfilled:

South Wales	50
North Wales	50

2. That, after deducting these sums, the aggregate surplus remitted to the General Treasurers be distributed by the Committee of Management, on a pro rata principle, in proportion to the amount actually raised and applied during the past year by means of Sustentation Funds in the several Claimant Districts.

APPENDIX VIII.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS'
AUXILIARY FUND,HELD IN HALIFAX PLACE CHAPEL, NOTTINGHAM,
ON THURSDAY, JULY 20TH, 1876.

The Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair.

PRESENT, the Rev. Dr. Williams, John Ratten-
bury, Henry H. Chettle, John Farrar, Charles Haydon, Dr. James, Dr. Jobson, Dr. Osborn, Dr. Stamp, and
W. H. Cornforth; also, Messrs. John Napier, Henry J.
Atkinson, James Barlow, William M'Arthur, M.P.,
William Mewburn, and George Smith.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Osborn; seconded by Mr.
Henry J Atkinson:

1. That this Committee has heard with much satisfaction of the still continued success which, by God's blessing, has attended the efforts of the Rev. John Rattenbury during the past year, and recommends that the allowances to Supernumeraries be increased upon the scale following: viz.—

The sum of one pound per annum being allowed for each year that a Minister has travelled, a further sum of twelve pounds per annum shall be added, in every instance, to the amount so calculated. To all widows an increase of three pounds per annum upon the old scale shall be given.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr.
William Mewburn:

2. That this Committee is gratified to hear that, upon the recommendation of the Conference, a majority of the Circuits have cheerfully made a public Collection on behalf of this Fund, and requests the Conference to direct that, in all our chapels, one such Collection at least shall be annually made.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Williams; seconded by Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P.:

3. That this Committee is encouraged to hope that in those Circuits in which the public Collection is now applied to make up the deficiency in the Class-contributions, an effort will be made to raise the small quota of 6*l.* a member from the Classes, so that the public Collection may go to the direct augmentation of the Fund.

Moved by the Rev. C. Haydon; seconded by Mr. George Smith:

4. That this Committee is thankful to learn that the recommendation of the last Conference, "That all the Ministers, including Preachers on trial, not appointed as Ministers of Circuits, but separated or engaged to other service, shall have a sum paid for them by the Department of service to which they are appointed, equivalent to that which is provided for the Circuit Ministers by the Class-contributions," has been accepted by all the Departments, and that they have resolved to act upon this recommendation of the Conference, year by year.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by the Rev. Dr. Stamp:

5. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. John Napier, and the Rev. John Rattenbury, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, the Secretary; also to the District Treasurers, and the Circuit Treasurers, for their services during the past year.

Moved by the Rev. Henry H. Chettle; seconded by Mr. Napier:

6. That the cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to those friends who, during the past year, have generously aided this Fund by special donations; to those Executors who have paid sundry legacies to this Fund; and also to those Trustees who have contributed to it from their Chapel Income.

Moved by the Rev. William H. Cornforth; seconded by Mr. James Barlow:

7. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. Greaves Walker and Mr. Richard H. Townend, for their services as Auditors for the past year; and that they be appointed for the next year.

Moved by the Rev. John Rattenbury; seconded by the Rev. Henry H. Chettle:

8. That the following Gentlemen be recommended as the Lay Members of this Committee for the next year:—
Mr. H. J. Atkinson, London; Mr. E. M. Bainbridge, Newcastle; Mr. James Barlow, Bolton; Mr. James S. Budgett, London; Mr. Isaac Holden, Oakworth; Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P., London; Mr. William Mewburn, Banbury; Mr. Thomas Pethick, Bristol; Mr. John Radmall, London; Mr. George Smith, Leeds; Mr. James Wood, B.A., Southport.

APPENDIX IX.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW OF THE WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION, HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, JULY 22ND, 1876.

The President of the Conference in the Chair.

THE Minutes of the Meetings of the General Committee were read.

An Approximate Financial Statement was read by the Treasurer.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. William Mewburn; supported by Mr. Alderman M'Arthur, M. P.:

1. That this Meeting is gratified to learn from the Reports of the Governors, Tutors, and Examiners, that the Wesleyan Theological Institution continues to accomplish the purpose for which it was originated; that skilful and faithful teaching is for the most part highly prized and conscientiously improved; and that diligent attention to study is found to be consistent with earnest spiritual life and energetic evangelistic labours.

Moved by the Rev. James Clapham; seconded by Mr. Isaac Hoyle; supported by Mr. J. T. Taylor, of Holmfirth:

2. That this Meeting is concerned to find that the supply of Candidates for the Ministry, especially for Missionary service, is inadequate to the requirements of the Connexion, so that very few students at Richmond are permitted to complete their full term of three years' training, and none of the Students who may be intended for service in the East are able to remain for an additional year, with a view to their instruction in subjects having direct reference to the work for which they are designated. This Committee commends the matter to the serious attention of the Conference and the Connexion; and prays "the Lord of the harvest" to send forth more "labourers into His harvest."

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by Mr. J. Barlow, J.P., of Manchester; supported by Mr. William Sissons, of Hull:

3. That this Committee recommends the Conference to give its cordial and respectful thanks to the Governors and Tutors of the three Branches of the Institution, to the General and Local Treasurers and Secretaries, and to those Ministers and Gentlemen who have conducted the Examinations, for their acceptable and efficient services.

APPENDIX X.

MEETING OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN NOTTINGHAM, JULY 21st, 1876.

PRESENT, the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. J. Rattenbury; the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), and Mr. Isaac Hoyle, the Treasurers; the Rev. J. H. Rigg, D.D., and the Rev. G. W. Olver, B.A., Principals of the two Training Colleges; the Rev. C. H. Kelly, Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; the Rev. T. B. Stephenson, B.A., Principal of the Children's Home; the Rev. G. O. Bate, Secretary of the Education Committee; and a number of Ministers and laymen invited to attend in accordance with the Resolution of the Conference, 1875.

1. An Abstract of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year was read.

2. Statistics of Wesleyan Training Colleges, Day Schools, and Sunday Schools were presented. (See pages 296, 297.)

3. The Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union read an Abstract of its proceedings during the year.

4. The Principal of "The Children's Home" presented an Abstract of the Report of that Institution for the year.

5. The Treasurers presented a Financial Statement.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A.; seconded by Mr. H. J. Atkinson :

1. This Meeting regrets to find that, although some new Schools have been opened during the year, and the attendance has increased in many others, a net decrease in the number of Wesleyan-Methodist Day Schools and Scholars has to be reported. Having in view recent indications of the probable maintenance of other Voluntary Schools, and recognising the importance of Wesleyan-Methodist Day Schools to Methodism generally, and in small towns and rural districts especially, the Meeting expresses its earnest hope that the number of such Schools will in future be fully maintained. It approves the action of the Committee during the year in arranging to render occasional aid to specially necessitous Schools, and trusts that the annual income of the Fund will be so enlarged as to permit the continuance of such aid without prejudice to other claims.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by Mr. T. W. Pocock :

2. This Meeting hears with much satisfaction and thankfulness of the remarkable prosperity of Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday Schools, as shown by the several items of increase now reported. It recognises the great importance of rendering thoroughly efficient an agency which is already so large; and, in view of this, it rejoices in the extension and success of the Connexional Sunday-School Union during the year. At the same time, the Meeting cannot but greatly regret that as yet little more than one-fourth of the sum which it was proposed to raise for the Outfit and Initial Expenses Fund of the Union has been obtained. The Meeting is glad to find that the financial position of the Union has received the special attention of the Committee, and trusts that the measures on which it has resolved will secure an amount which will not only free the Union from future embarrassment, but enable it fully to develop its projects for the benefit of Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday Schools.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Moulton ; seconded by Mr. Seaber :

3. This Meeting rejoices in the continued prosperity of the Children's Home ; the work of which it esteems as very important, not only in its relation to the children under the care of its Committee, but also as an agency for training converted young men and women for Christian service and enterprise. The Meeting commends this branch of the operations of the Home to the attention and sympathy of the Church of Christ, and asks its generous support of this valuable Institution.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Rigg ; seconded by Mr. Farrar Smith ; supported by the Rev. John Clulow :

4. This Meeting regrets to learn that Mr. Hoyle has felt obliged to resign the office of Lay Treasurer of the Education Fund, and cordially thanks him for the services rendered in that capacity. It approves the Resolution of the Committee to request the Conference to appoint as Lay Treasurers Mr. Frederick Howard and Mr. William Vanner ; and to entrust the special charge of the Sunday-School Union Branch of the Finance to Mr. Vanner.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

THE year just closed has been marked by no large extension, but has been spent in consolidating and more perfectly organizing the work.

The total income from donations is £10,273. 17s. 1d., and this although we have not received large sums towards any special fund. There are items in the income of this year which call for special and grateful remark. The contributions received at the Lancashire Branch show a marked advance. The Sunday Schools have contributed (net) £2,229. 4s. 7d. In several cases also the teachers and children of Day Schools have contributed. It is one of our greatest joys that in so large a degree the hearts of happy children through the land have been drawn out in sympathy and effort towards our work.

A number of Circuit correspondents have been appointed, with the approval of the Superintendents, and have rendered valuable service. But the financial position is not yet satisfactory. The liabilities against the Institution amount to £10,000; and a vigorous effort to reduce this amount is contemplated. Towards its reduction one friend offers £1,000.

The LONDON BRANCH of the Home has been doing its work vigorously and successfully during the year. There are now resident in this Branch one hundred and eighty-nine children, of whom ninety-seven are boys, and ninety-two are girls. The block of buildings, including the workshops, has been altered and completed, according to the original plan, during the year. The efficiency of the Labour Departments is thereby greatly increased; and the printing department is becoming a profitable industry in more senses than one. We still, however, are greatly inconvenienced for want of our chapel and school-rooms. The offer of £500 for the chapel from one friend still holds good; but we have been unable to take advantage of it because the chapel must be built above the school-rooms, and the money to build these has not been secured. An attempt has been made to secure the necessary money by enlisting the sympathy of the children of Circuit-stewards, and we have received from them about £500; but £500 are still needed.

The work itself, for which all the buildings and appliances are but tools, progresses with a good measure of success. Though our hopes are often deferred, and sometimes disappointed, yet God is graciously working in the hearts of many of the children. A large number, we believe, are earnestly seeking to be Christians, and fifty voluntarily meet in special classes for religious instruction.

The LANUASHIRE BRANCH of the Institution is making steady progress. The fund given by the donor of the property is putting a new face on things there. The yield of the farm is becoming larger, and the property generally is increased considerably in value. The effect of the farm labour upon the lads is all that could be desired. A change, almost amounting to a physical regeneration, passes upon them, and the high moral and religious tone which has marked this Branch, especially for the last two years, is still kept up. The only thing to be regretted is that on so fine a property there are only four houses.

There are in residence eighty-five children. Of these, the youngest is two years old, and the eldest is seventeen. A large proportion of our inmates are now young children, ranging from six to ten years: the reason of this is, that as our children have been trained and made fit for service, we have placed them in situations, and the vacancies thus made have been filled by new arrivals from various parts of the country. During the past year no group has been sent to Canada; but as many of our elder children as were fit for service have been placed in situations in Christian homes. Twenty vacancies in this Branch have been filled up during the last twelve months. Most of the children have come from the worst quarters of Manchester and Bolton: their cases have been pitiable in the extreme.

The CANADIAN WORK has been quietly but steadily prosecuted through the year. For a variety of reasons it was not thought good to send out any children this year; but the two hundred and fifty who were already in Canada have been duly visited and cared for by the indefatigable governor, Mr. Riley. Of this part of our work it is sufficient to say that it is fully realising our best hopes.

The testimony of Dr. Rigg, who recently visited the Canadian Branch of the Home, was recently given, as also that of the Rev. Thomas Turner, M.A., a Clergyman of the Church of England. Both were highly encouraging and satisfactory.

The MILTON BRANCH.—A very decided advance in the work has been secured at the new Branch at Gravesend. The new wing has been completed, and the school is fairly launched on its career of usefulness. A good deal of additional accommodation is required for workshops and school-rooms before the establishment can be said to be quite satisfactory; but, meantime, good work is being done, and the prospects for the future of this important Branch are very hopeful.

TRAINING SHIP OR SCHOOL.—The project of establishing a Training Ship has not yet ripened; but the friends of the movement are using their best endeavours to secure the object originally contemplated.

TRAINING DEPARTMENT.—The importance of the Training Department is becoming increasingly apparent. Many Christian young men and women feel called to devote themselves completely to some direct work for Christ, whether in orphanages, refuges, industrial schools, hospitals, City missions, or some other form. The Children's Home affords an opportunity of giving to such persons some practical training for their work: for whilst the Probationers discharge certain duties as Assistant Officers in the Home, direction and help are given to them in their reading; and the young men have opportunities of exercising their gifts in preaching at the Mission-rooms connected with the Home. Four young men have already gone into the Ministry. It is hoped that this department may become larger and more important year by year.

In connection with the Training Department are three Missions amongst the poor of Bethnal Green. The oldest of these (in Green Street) has been in operation for four years, and very great blessing has attended it. The attendance at the services is only limited by the capacity of the room. Many persons have been reclaimed from habits of intemperance and profligacy; many conversions have taken place; fifty persons are now meeting regularly for Christian fellowship; and the temperance meetings, and other means of benefiting the people, are regularly maintained. The second of these Mission efforts is the Children's Mission, in connection with which we hold religious services on Sundays and week-days, as well as Band of Hope meetings, Savings Bank, etc. The number of children, mostly very poor, thus regularly brought under our influence is about six hundred; and a very marked improvement is apparent in their appearance and habits since the commencement of our work. A new Mission, in a room adjoining, and especially intended for the parents of these children, has been recently commenced,

It promises to be very useful. In all these Missions our young men under training, especially those who are looking forward to the Ministry, find an excellent sphere for their labours; and the conduct of these Missions devolves upon them, assisted, however, by some very earnest volunteer workers.

The Report concludes with a reference to the irreparable loss which the Home, in common with so many other Christian institutions, has suffered from the decease of Mr. W. T. Whelpton. He was one of the very earliest friends of the movement. He gave to its concerns a large amount of time and thought, and supported it by very liberal gifts.

APPENDIX XII.

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

THE following is an Abstract of the Committee's Report :

1. The total amount promised to the Fund for the "Extension of Methodism in Great Britain," since its establishment in 1874, is £33,154. 5s. 7d.

2. The principle on which subscriptions have been solicited has been that of spreading the amount promised over a period of ten years,—that the Committee might be able to rely upon a definite amount for distribution year by year. Several of those, however, who have contributed to the Fund during the past year have declined to subscribe in this particular form, but have promised to repeat their donations, if spared.

3. The amount promised to the Fund since the Conference of 1875 is £9,140, and the cash actually received is £1,856. 3s. 2d.—of which £1,000 has been carried to the Temporary Investment Account.

4. £545 of the Income has been received, as interest upon the moneys which the Treasurers generously invested, on the first establishment of the Fund, to meet the necessary working expenses, which, during the past year, have amounted to £526. 7s. 4d.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted :—

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. W. Mewburn, of Banbury :

1. That this Meeting, fully convinced of the necessity of maintaining Methodism where it has been already established, and of extending it to many other places where it is urgently required, is glad to learn that £9,140 has been promised to the Fund for the "Extension of Methodism in Great Britain" during the past year in addition to £4,000 and £20,000 previously promised; and trusts that the £6,000 needed to bring the Fund up to the minimum of £40,000 will speedily be subscribed, so that the Committee may be able, without further delay, to assist, by means of Grants, many needy and important cases, and thus provide for the spiritual necessities of the population.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Williams, Secretary of the Conference; seconded by Mr. Joseph Edge, of Burslem:

2. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to Sir Francis Lycett and Mr. William Mewburn, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer (A), the Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their services on behalf of the Fund during the year.

APPENDIX XIII.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT UPON THE EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL, PRESENTED TO THE CONFERENCE, 1876.

THE Examination was duly held on April the 5th, as directed by the Conference. The arrangements were satisfactorily carried out; and hearty thanks are due to the District Examination Secretaries for the services which they rendered.

196 Probationers were examined; 18 others were absent, of whom 9 were sick; 5 claimed exemption; 3 had not prepared for the Examination; and one, through an error, was not supplied with suitable papers.

From Preachers on Trial of the Second, Third, and Fourth Years, the maximum number of Papers required was five. 60 Probationers wrote this maximum number; 79 wrote four Papers; 20 wrote three; one wrote two; and one wrote only one Paper. The two Probationers last named were unwell. It should be borne in mind that some Probationers of the before-named years, not being acquainted with Greek or Hebrew, were only expected to write four Papers each.

The general results of the Examination in each year were as follows:—

FIRST YEAR.—101 Papers were written by 35 Probationers. 12 Papers took the medium mark of 3+; 54 rose above it; 35 fell below it. The average marking was better than that obtained by First Year's Probationers in 1875: but the average number of Papers written by each Probationer is lower than that in 1875. The number taking the Greek Testament subject was only three (one-fourth of the number in 1875), and of this number two had been at the Institution.

SECOND YEAR.—231 Papers were written by 54 Probationers. 39 Papers took the medium mark of 3+; 122 rose above it; and 70 fell below it. The results were not equal to those gained by the Probationers of the Second Year in 1875. Greek and Hebrew Papers were inferior as a whole; but the number of Probationers who attempted the Greek subject was much better than in 1875.

THIRD YEAR.—279 Papers were written by 69 Probationers. 53 Papers gained the medium mark; 132 rose above it; 94 fell below it. These results do not compare well either with those obtained by the Probationers of the Third Year in 1875, or with those obtained by the same men in that year. There is improvement, however, in the number of Probationers attempting the Hebrew and Greek subjects.

FOURTH YEAR.—165 Papers were written by 38 Probationers; 36 Papers took the medium mark 3+; 85 rose above it; 44 fell below it. In the general marking the results obtained are better than those obtained by the Fourth Year in 1875. But the proportion of Probationers taking Greek subjects is smaller than it was last year.

SCHEDULE B.

A BSTRACT OF THE INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

or

THE CHILDREN'S FUND.

FOR THE YEAR 1875-1876.

Treasurers.—The Rev. G. STRINGER ROWE and Mr. WILLIAM MEWBURN.

[illegible]

Audited and found correct.

Nottingham,
August 8th, 1876.

JOHN GRUNDY.
THOMAS CLAY BONSER.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST
OF THE
WESLEYAN-METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL
IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE
COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS
UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

* * * The figures at the beginning of the lines mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; and those at the end of the lines denote his first, second, &c., annual appointment to his present Circuit.

N.B.—In cases in which a second name in brackets follows the name of the head of a Circuit in Great Britain, it is the postal direction for the head of such Circuit; as Birstal, (Leeds); and where a residence other than the head of a Circuit is followed by a second name in brackets, or the two names are included in brackets, the second is, in like manner, the postal direction for such residence.
